INTRODUCTION

On November 6, 2024, this Court preliminarily approved the class action settlement between Plaintiff Daniel Puller (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant Legends OWO, LLC (“Defendant”) and directed that notice be sent to the Settlement Class. See ECF No. 43. The settlement administrator has implemented the Court-approved notice plan and direct notice has reached over 93.1% of the certified Settlement Class.¹ See Declaration of Cameron R. Azari Regarding Implementation Of Notice And Claims Administration (“Epiq. Decl.”) ¶ 18. The reaction from the Settlement Class has been overwhelmingly positive. Specifically, of the 113,968 Settlement Class Members, zero objected and only two requested to be excluded.² Id. ¶¶ 22, 31. The Settlement is an excellent result for the Class and the Court should grant final approval.

The strength of the Settlement speaks for itself. After extensive negotiations, the Parties reached a Settlement that creates a non-reversionary Settlement Fund of $975,000.00, which will be used to pay all approved claims by class members, notice and administration expenses, a Court-approved service award to Plaintiff, and attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses to Class Counsel. Settlement ¶¶ 1.41; 2.1(b). Notably, Defendant collected and retained $1,025,000.00 in allegedly unlawful fees, meaning the Settlement Fund equates to approximately 95% of the potential actual damages available to Settlement Class Members. And, just as important, the Settlement also provides meaningful prospective relief aimed at the challenged conduct, as Defendant acknowledges that it has changed the purchase flow for tickets on its website to display the processing fee that was the subject of this litigation and agrees to comply with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law (“ACAL”) § 25.07(4).

Given the relief provided by the Settlement, the Court should not hesitate to grant final approval.

FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4)

Effective August 29, 2022, New York enacted Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4), which provides that:

Every operator or operator’s agent of a place of entertainment ... shall disclose the total cost of the ticket, inclusive of all ancillary fees that must be paid in order to purchase the ticket, and disclose in a clear and conspicuous manner the portion of the ticket price stated in dollars that represents a service charge, or any other fee or surcharge to the purchase. Such disclosure of the total cost and fees shall be displayed in the ticket listing prior to the ticket being selected for purchase. ... The price of the ticket shall not increase during the purchase process.

Id. (emphasis added).

The ACAL provides a private right of action to “any person who has been injured by reason of violation of” its provisions. ACAL § 25.33.

B. Plaintiff’s Allegations

Defendant owns and operates One World Observatory. See Complaint (ECF No. 1) (“Compl.”) ¶ 8. Plaintiff alleges that when consumers purchase admission tickets to Defendant’s Place of Entertainment on Defendant’s website, they are “quoted a fee-less price, only to be ambushed by a non-delineated ‘processing fee’ at checkout after clicking through the various screens required to make a purchase.” Id. ¶ 1; see also id. ¶¶ 9-15 and Figures 1–8-C. Plaintiff alleges that this conduct violates ACAL § 25.07(4) because Defendant failed to “disclose the ‘total cost of a ticket, inclusive of all ancillary fees that must be paid in order to purchase the ticket’ after a ticket is selected” and because Defendant “increase[ed] the price of their tickets during the purchase process.” Id. ¶¶ 28-30. As alleged, “[o]n January 20, 2023, Plaintiff purchased two tickets to One World Observatory on Defendant’s website and was forced to pay Defendant’s processing fee.” Id. ¶ 32. As alleged, “Plaintiff was harmed by paying this processing fee, even though that processing fee was not disclosed to Plaintiff at the beginning of the purchase process, and therefore, is unlawful pursuant to New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4).” Id.

C. The Litigation And Settlement Negotiations

Plaintiff filed this case on January 10, 2024. ECF No. 1. On March 8, 2024, Defendant responded to the Complaint by filing a motion to dismiss pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(b)(1) and 12(b)(6). ECF No. 13. On April 19, 2024, Plaintiff opposed Defendant’s motion to dismiss, and on May 10, 2024, Defendant filed a reply in further support of the motion to dismiss. ECF Nos. 24 and 31. On April 10, 2024, Defendant filed a request to stay discovery pending the Court’s decision on Defendant’s motion to dismiss. ECF No. 20. On April 19, 2024, Plaintiff filed a response opposing Defendant’s request to stay discovery, and on May 2, 2024, the Court issued an order denying Defendant’s request to stay discovery. ECF Nos. 26 and 29.

During and after the pleadings, the Parties engaged in formal discovery, which included the exchange of written discovery and document productions. See Fraietta Decl. ¶ 7. Counsel for the Parties engaged in numerous conferences to discuss settlement, and on August 2, 2024, the Parties reached agreement on all material terms of a class action settlement and executed a term sheet. Id. ¶ 8. On August 6, 2024, the Parties wrote to inform the Court that they reached an agreement in principle to resolve the matter on a class-wide basis. ECF No. 35. On August 7, 2024, the Court granted the Parties’ application, directing Plaintiff to file a motion for preliminary approval on or before September 20, 2024. ECF No. 36. That deadline was ultimately extended until October 7, 2024. ECF No. 38.

In the weeks following, a Settlement Administrator was engaged and the Parties, in consultation with the Settlement Administrator on matters of notice and claims administration, negotiated the full-form Settlement Agreement. Fraietta Decl. ¶ 10 and Ex. 1. The Court preliminarily approved the Settlement on November 6, 2024. Id. ¶ 15 (citing ECF No. 43).

TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

The key terms of the Settlement are briefly summarized as follows:

A. Class Definition

The “Settlement Class” or “Settlement Class Members” is defined as:

[A]ll individuals who purchased tickets and paid a processing fee to gain entrance to Defendant’s Place of Entertainment from Defendant’s Website from August 29, 2022, and through the date of Preliminary Approval.

ECF No. 43 ¶ 9.³

B. Monetary Relief

The Settlement consists of a non-reversionary all-cash fund in the amount of $975,000.00, which will be used to pay all approved claims by class members, notice and administration expenses, a Court-approved service award to Plaintiff, and attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses to proposed Class Counsel to the extent awarded by the Court. Id. ¶¶ 1.35, 1.36, 1.41. Each Settlement Class Member who submits a simple Claim Form will receive a pro rata cash payment as a percentage of the total amount of Out-of-Pocket fees he or she paid to Defendant during the class period. Id. ¶ 2.1(b).

C. Prospective Relief

In connection with the Settlement, Defendant acknowledges that it has changed the purchase flow for tickets on its website to display the processing fee that was the subject of this litigation in a manner that complies with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4). Id. ¶ 2.2.

D. Release

In exchange for the relief described above, Defendant and each of the “Released Parties” as defined at ¶ 1.33 of the Settlement will receive a full release of all claims arising out of any facts, transactions, events, matters, occurrences, acts, disclosures, statements, representations, omissions or failures to act regarding the alleged collection and retention by Defendant of fees in connection with electronic ticket sales from August 29, 2022, through August 1, 2024. See id. ¶¶ 1.32, 3.1-3.2 for full release language.

E. Notice And Administration Expenses

The Settlement Fund will be used to pay the cost of sending the Notice set forth in the Agreement and any other notice as required by the Court, as well as all other costs of administration of the Settlement. See id. ¶¶ 1.36, 1.41.

F. Service Award And Attorneys’ Fees, Costs, And Expenses

In recognition of his efforts on behalf of the Settlement Class, the Parties have agreed that Plaintiff may receive, subject to Court approval, a service award of up to $5,000 from the Settlement Fund, as appropriate compensation for his time and effort serving as Class Representative and as a party to the Action. Id. ¶ 8.3. Defendant has also agreed that the Settlement Fund may also be used to pay Class Counsel reasonable attorneys’ fees and to reimburse costs and expenses in this Action, in an amount to be approved by the Court. Id. ¶ 8.1. Class Counsel has agreed—with no consideration from Defendant—to limit its petition to the Court for attorneys’ fees, unreimbursed costs, and expenses to no more than one-third of the Settlement Fund. Id. Defendant may challenge the amounts requested. Should the Court award less than the amount sought by Class Counsel, the difference in the amount sought and the amount ultimately awarded shall remain in the Settlement Fund. See id. On December 27, 2024, Plaintiff and Class Counsel separately moved for these awards. See ECF No. 44. That motion is unopposed.

ARGUMENT

I. FINAL APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT IS APPROPRIATE

Final approval of the Settlement is appropriate here because it is procedurally and substantively fair, adequate, and reasonable. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). To determine whether to approve a settlement, “[c]ourts examine procedural and substantive fairness in light of the ‘strong judicial policy in favor of settlement’ of class action suits.” Tiro v. Public House Invs., LLC, 2013 WL 4830949, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 10, 2013). “Fairness is determined upon review of both the terms of the settlement agreement and the negotiating process that led to such agreement.” Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co., 228 F.R.D. 174, 184 (W.D.N.Y. 2005). “A presumption of fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness may attach to a class settlement reached in arm’s-length negotiations between experienced, capable counsel after meaningful discovery.” Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc., 396 F.3d 96 at 116 (2d. Cir. Jan. 4, 2005). Courts must also “expressly consider two core factors when reviewing the substantive fairness of a settlement: the adequacy of relief provided to a class and the equitable treatment of class members.” Moses v. The New York Times Co., 79 F.4th 235, 244 (2d Cir. 2023) (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)-(D)). When evaluating the relief provided, “courts must ‘tak[e] into account,’ among other considerations, ‘the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees,’” such that “‘both the terms of the settlement and any fee award encompassed in a settlement agreement [is reviewed]’ in tandem.” Id. (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(iii)); Fresno Cnty. Employees’ Ret. Ass’n v. Isaacson/Weaver Family Trust, 925 F.3d 63, 72 (2d Cir. 2019)).

Courts and public policy considerations favor settlement, particularly in class actions and other complex cases where substantial resources can be conserved by avoiding the time, cost, and rigor of prolonged litigation. “The compromise of complex litigation is encouraged by the courts and favored by public policy,” and is particularly encouraged for the compromise of class actions. Id. at 117. “Absent fraud or collusion ... [courts] should be hesitant to substitute [their] judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement.” In re EVCI Career Colls. Holding Corp. Sec. Litig., 2007 WL 2230177, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. July 27, 2007).

Courts should also consider the “four enumerated factors in the new [Federal Rule of Civil Procedure] Rule 23(e)(2), in addition to the nine Grinnell factors.” Johnson v. Rausch, Sturm, Israel, Enerson & Hornik, LLP, 333 F.R.D. 314, 420 (S.D.N.Y. 2019). The Rule 23(e) factors are whether: (A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class; (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm’s length; (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims; (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees, including timing of payment; and (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). The Rule 23(e)(2) factors significantly overlap or implicate the Grinnell factors, and the Rule 23(e)(2) factors do not displace the Grinnell factors. In re Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litig., 2019 WL 6875472, at *14 (E.D.N.Y. Dec. 16, 2019) (“There is significant overlap between the Rule 23(e)(2) and Grinnell factors, which complement, rather than displace each other.”).

A. The Grinnell Factors

1. Litigation Through Trial Would Be Complex, Costly, And Long (Grinnell Factor 1)

By reaching a favorable settlement prior to dispositive motions or trial, Plaintiff seeks to avoid significant expense and delay, and instead ensure recovery for the class. “Most class actions are inherently complex and settlement avoids the costs, delays and multitude of other problems associated with them.” In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litig., 80 F. Supp. 2d 164, 174 (S.D.N.Y. 2000), aff’d sub. nom., D’Amato v. Deutsche Bank, 236 F.3d 78 (2d Cir. 2001). Courts consistently have held that, unless the proposed settlement is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to the continuation of lengthy and expensive litigation with uncertain results. TBK Partners, Ltd. v. Western Union Corp., 517 F. Supp. 380, 389 (S.D.N.Y. 1981), aff’d, 675 F.2d 456 (2d Cir. 1982).

As noted, the Parties engaged in formal discovery prior to reaching the Settlement, including on issues such as the size and scope of the putative class, specifically the amount of fees Defendant collected and retained during the relevant time period. Had no settlement been reached, the next steps in the litigation would have been for the Court to resolve the motion to dismiss, and if that were denied, contested motions for summary judgment and class certification, which would be at minimum costly and time-consuming for the Parties and the Court and create the risk that a litigation class would not be certified and/or that the Settlement Class would recover nothing at all. If Plaintiff prevailed through all of that, the Parties would still have to litigate the case at trial and possible appeals.

More specifically, Plaintiff is aware that Defendant would continue to assert a number of defenses on the merits, including (i) Plaintiff's lack of standing; (ii) Plaintiff's claims are barred by the voluntary payment doctrine; and (iii) Defendant's fees are permitted under ACAL § 25.29, and therefore are not unlawful as Plaintiff alleged. Fraietta Decl. ¶ 19. Plaintiff and Class Counsel are also aware that Defendant would oppose class certification vigorously, and Defendant would take the position that Plaintiff is not entitled to bring his claims on a class wide basis. Id. Plaintiff and Class Counsel further understand that Defendant would prepare a competent defense at trial. Id. Looking beyond trial, Plaintiff is also keenly aware of the fact that Defendant could appeal the merits of any adverse decision. Id. Victory for the Defendant at any one of those steps would deprive putative class members of any relief. No matter what the outcome, absent settlement, this case would likely expend significant court resources. And given that ACAL § 25.07(4) was recently enacted, there is no binding authority on these issues. Id.

The Settlement, on the other hand, permits a prompt resolution of this action on terms that are fair, reasonable and adequate to the Class. Consequently, this Grinnell factor plainly weighs in favor of final approval of the Settlement.

2. The Reaction Of The Class (Grinnell Factor 2)

With the second Grinnell factor, the Court judges “the reaction of the class to the settlement.” In re Vitamin C Antitrust Litig, 2012 WL 5289514, at *4 (quoting Grinnell, 495 F.2d at 463). “It is well settled that the reaction of the class to the settlement is perhaps the most significant factor to be weighed in considering its adequacy.” In re MetLife Demutualization Litig., 689 F. Supp. 2d 297, 333 (E.D.N.Y. 2010) (internal quotation marks omitted). This “significant” factor weighs heavily in favor of final approval.

Here, the reaction of the Class Members to the Settlement has been overwhelmingly positive. Class Notice has been provided to the Settlement Class Members in accordance with the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B) and the Preliminary Approval Order (ECF No. 43 at 12-14), and direct notice reached over 93.1% of the Settlement Class. See Epiq. Decl. ¶ 18. As of January 10, 2022, zero class members objected to the Settlement, and only two opted-out. See id. ¶ 31. This exceptional participation rate and lack of objections from the Settlement Class leaves no question that the class members view the Settlement favorably, which weighs heavily in favor of final approval and further supports the “presumption of fairness.” See, e.g., Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011 at 1027 (9th Cir. June 9, 1998) (“[T]he fact that the overwhelming majority of the class willingly approved the offer and stayed in the class presents at least some objective positive commentary as to its fairness.”); Massiah v. MetroPlus Health Plan, Inc., 2012 WL 5874655, at *4 (E.D.N.Y. 2012) (“The fact that the vast majority of class members neither objected nor opted out is a strong indication of fairness.”). Consequently, this Grinnell factor weighs in favor of final approval of the Settlement.

3. Discovery Has Advanced Far Enough To Allow The Parties To Responsibly Resolve The Case (Grinnell Factor 3)

“The pertinent question is whether counsel had an adequate appreciation of the merits of the case before negotiating.” Torres v. Gristede’s Oper. Corp., 2010 WL 5507892, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 21, 2010). “[T]he pretrial negotiations and discovery must be sufficiently adversarial that they are not designed to justify a settlement ... but an aggressive effort to ferret out facts helpful to the prosecution of the suit.” In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litig., 80 F. Supp. 2d at 176. Prior to reaching the Settlement, the Parties conducted formal discovery including on issues such as the size and scope of the putative class, specifically the amount of fees Defendant collected and retained during the relevant time period. Fraietta Decl. ¶ 7. The Parties also discussed and debated the key facts, legal issues, litigation risks, and potential settlement structures. Id. This information was sufficient for the Parties to assess the strengths and weakness of the claims and defenses and their relative negotiating positions. Id.

Further, Class Counsel’s experience in class action matters, as well as the other efforts made by counsel on both sides, confirms that the Parties are sufficiently well apprised of the facts of this action, and the strengths and weaknesses of their respective cases, to make an intelligent analysis of the proposed settlement. This Grinnell factor thus also weighs in favor of final approval.

4. Plaintiff Would Face Real Risks If The Case Proceeded (Grinnell Factors 4, 5, And 6)

“The fourth, fifth, and sixth Grinnell factors all relate to continued litigation risks,” i.e., the risks of establishing liability, damages, and maintaining the class action through trial. In re Vitamin C, 2012 WL 5289514, at *5. “Litigation inherently involves risks.” Willix v. Healthfirst, Inc., 2011 WL 754862, at *4 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 18, 2011). “One purpose of a settlement is to avoid the uncertainty of a trial on the merits.” Id.

Although Plaintiff’s case is strong, it is not without risk. Defendant has made it clear that, if the litigation continues, it will move for summary judgment on various issues and vigorously contest the certification of a litigation class. In weighing the risks of certifying a class and establishing liability and damages, the court “must only weigh the likelihood of success by the plaintiff class against the relief offered by the settlement.” In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litig., 80 F. Supp. 2d. at 177. The Settlement alleviates these risks and provides a substantial benefit to the Class in a timely fashion.

The risk of maintaining the class status through trial is also present. The Court has not yet certified the Settlement Class for litigation purposes and the Parties anticipate that such a determination would be reached only after discovery is completed and exhaustive class certification briefing is filed. Defendant would likely argue that individual questions preclude class certification. Fraietta Decl. ¶ 19. Defendant would also likely argue that a class action is not a superior method to resolve Plaintiff's claims, and that a class trial would not be manageable. Id.

Should the Court certify the class, Defendant would likely challenge certification through a Rule 23(f) application and subsequently move to decertify, forcing additional rounds of briefing. Risk, expense, and delay permeate such a process. The proposed Settlement eliminates this risk, expense, and delay as well. Consequently, these Grinnell factors weigh in favor of final approval of the Settlement.

5. Defendant's Ability To Withstand A Greater Judgment (Grinnell Factor 7)

While Defendants could likely withstand a greater judgment, a "defendant's ability to withstand a greater judgment, standing alone, does not suggest that the settlement is unfair." Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co., 228 F.R.D. 174, 186 (W.D.N.Y. 2005). Thus, this factor is neutral.

6. The Settlement Amount Is Reasonable In Light Of The Possible Recovery And The Attendant Risks Of Litigation (Grinnell Factors 8 And 9)

The determination of whether a settlement amount is reasonable "does not involve the use of a mathematical equation yielding a particularized sum." Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co., 228 F.R.D. 174, 186 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) (internal quotation omitted). "Instead, 'there is a range of reasonableness with respect to a settlement – a range which recognizes the uncertainties of law and fact in any particular case and the concomitant risks and costs necessarily inherent in taking any litigation to completion.'" Id. (quoting Newman v. Stein, 464 F.2d 689, 693 (2d Cir. 1972).

Because a settlement provides certain and immediate recovery, courts often approve settlements even where the benefits obtained as a result of the settlement are less than those originally sought. As the Second Circuit stated in Grinnell, “[t]here is no reason, at least in theory, why a satisfactory settlement could not amount to a hundredth or even a thousandth of a single percent of the potential recovery.” 495 F.2d at 455 n.2.

Here, the non-reversionary cash Settlement Fund equates to approximately 95% of the total amount of allegedly unlawful fees collected and retained by Defendant, and each Settlement Class Member who submits a simple Claim Form will receive a pro rata cash payment as a percentage of the total amount of processing fees he or she paid to Defendant during the class period, following the deduction of notice and claims administration costs, attorneys’ fees and expenses, and the class representative service award, all of which will be paid from the Settlement Fund. Settlement ¶¶ 1.41; 2.1(b). In addition, Defendant acknowledges that it has changed the purchase flow for tickets on its website to display the processing fee that was the subject of this litigation and agrees to comply with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4). Id. ¶ 2.2. Weighing the benefits of the Settlement against the risks associated with proceeding in litigation and in collecting on any judgment, the Settlement is more than reasonable. Moreover, when a settlement assures payment of substantial amounts to class members, and does not “sacrific[e] ‘speculative payment of a hypothetically larger amount years down the road,’” it is reasonable under this factor. Gilliam v. Addicts Rehab. Ctr. Fund, 2008 WL 782596, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 24, 2008). Thus, these Grinnell factors also weigh in favor of final approval.

B. The Rule 23(e)(2) Factors

1. The Class Representative And Class Counsel Have Adequately Represented The Class (Rule 23(e)(2)(A))

“Determination of adequacy typically entails inquiry as to whether: (1) plaintiff’s interests are antagonistic to the interest of other members of the class and (2) plaintiff’s attorneys are qualified, experienced and able to conduct the litigation.” In re Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litig., 330 F.R.D. 11, 30 (E.D.N.Y. 2019). Here, “plaintiff’s interests are aligned with other class members’ interests because [he] suffered the same injuries:” paying an allegedly unlawful fee to Defendant due to its alleged failure to properly disclose the fee. In re GSE Bonds Antitrust Litig., 414 F. Supp. 3d 686, 692 (S.D.N.Y. 2019). “Because of these injuries, plaintiff[] ha[s] an interest in vigorously pursuing the claims of the class.” Id. Further, numerous other courts in this Circuit have previously found that Class Counsel adequately meet the obligations and responsibilities of Class Counsel. See Fraietta Decl. Ex. 2, Firm Resume of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. This factor thus favors final approval.

2. The Settlement Was Negotiated At Arm’s Length

Class Counsel and counsel for Defendant are experienced in class action litigation and engaged in protracted settlement discussions with the benefit of all necessary information to make an informed and intelligent evaluation of the strengths and weaknesses of the case. Accordingly, this Rule 23(e)(2) factor has been met.

3. The Settlement Provides Adequate Relief To The Class

Whether relief is adequate takes into account “(i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims, if required; (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees, including timing of payment; and (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3).” Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(i-iv). As to “the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal,” this factor “subsumes several Grinnell factors ... including: (i) the complexity, expense and likely duration of the litigation; (ii) the risks of establishing liability; (iii) the risks of establishing damages; and (iv) the risks of maintaining the class through the trial. In re Payment Card Interchange, 330 F.R.D. at 36. As noted above, the Settlement has met each of these Grinnell factors. Supra §§ I.A(1)-(6). As to “any agreement required to be identified by Rule 23(e)(3)” or “any agreement made in connection with the proposal,” In re GSE Bonds, 414 F. Supp. 3d at 696, no such agreement exists in this case other than the Settlement. Fraietta Decl. ¶ 26.

As to “the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class,” “[a]n allocation formula need only have a reasonable, rational basis, particularly if recommended by experienced and competent class counsel.” In re Payment Card Interchange, 330 F.R.D. at 40. Here, under the terms of the Settlement, Settlement Class Members who submit a timely Claim Form will receive a pro rata portion of the Settlement Fund, as a percentage of the total amount of the Out-of-Pocket fees he or she paid to and received by Defendant during the class period, following the deduction of notice and claims administration costs, attorneys’ fees and expenses, and the class representative service award, all of which will be paid by the Settlement Fund. Settlement ¶¶ 1.41; 2.1(b). This plan was proposed by experienced and competent counsel with the assistance of an experienced Settlement Administrator and ensures “the equitable and timely distribution of a settlement fund without burdening the process in a way that will unduly waste the fund.” In re GSE Bonds, 414 F. Supp. 3d at 695.

As to “the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees,” Class Counsel has applied for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses “not to exceed one-third” of the Settlement Fund, which amounts to no more than $325,000.00. Settlement ¶ 8.1; ECF No. 44. Class Counsel’s application is unopposed and is a reasonable request, and courts in this Circuit routinely approve fee requests in the amount of one-third of a common fund. See, e.g., Hayes v. Harmony Gold Min. Co., 2011 WL 6019219, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 2, 2011) (awarding “attorneys’ fees in the amount of one third” of a $9 million settlement fund), aff’d 509 F. App’x 21, 23-24 (2d Cir.

2013) (affirming fee award, and noting “the prospect of a percentage fee award from a common fund settlement, as here, aligns the interests of class counsel with those of the class”); Khait v. Whirlpool Corp., 2010 WL 2025106, at *8 (E.D.N.Y. Jan. 20, 2010) (awarding 33% of $9 million settlement fund); Willix v. Healthfirst, Inc., 2011 WL 754862, at *6-7 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 18, 2011) (awarding 33% of $7.7 million settlement fund). As courts in this Circuit have noted, fee requests for up to one-third of common funds represent what “reasonable, paying client[s] ... typically pay ... of their recoveries under private retainer agreements.” Reyes v. Altamarea Grp., 2011 WL 4599822, at *8 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 16, 2011).

4. The Settlement Treats All Class Members Equally

This Rule 23(e)(2) factor discusses “whether the apportionment of relief among class members takes appropriate account of differences among their claims, and whether the scope of the release may affect class members in different ways that bear on the apportionment of relief.” In re Payment Card Interchange, 330 F.R.D. at 47. Here, the Settlement distributes cash relief to each Settlement Class Member on a pro rata basis equal to the percentage of the total amount of Out-of-Pocket fees he or she paid to Defendant during the class period, which has been found by courts in this Circuit to be equitable. See id.; see also, e.g., Meredith Corp. v. SESAC, LLC, 87 F. Supp. 3d 650, 667 (S.D.N.Y. 2015) (finding that a pro rata distribution plan “appears to treat the class members equitably ... and has the benefit of simplicity”). Thus, this Rule 23(e)(2) factor weighs in favor of approval.⁴

⁴ Additionally, the Second Circuit has found that “the existence and extent of incentive payments is relevant to whether ‘class members [are treated] equitably relative to each other.’” Moses, 79 F.4th at 245 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(D)) (“[T]he equitable-treatment requirement protects the interests of class representatives who play an active role in the litigation ... [while] [a]t the same time, the rule requires that courts reject incentive awards that are excessive compared to the service provided by the class representative ...”). Here, the requested $5,000 service award comprises a mere 0.51% of the $975,000.00 Settlement Fund and will have a de minimis impact on class member recovery. Additionally, other courts in this Circuit have found

Because the Settlement is, on its face, “fair, adequate, and reasonable, and not a product of collusion,” Frank, 228 F.R.D. at 184 (quoting Joel A. v. Giuliani, 218 F.3d 132, 138-39 (2d Cir. 2000)), the Court should grant final approval.

II. THE NOTICE PLAN COMPORTS WITH DUE PROCESS

Before final approval can be granted, due process and Rule 23 require that the notice provided to the Settlement Class is “the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B); Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 173 (1974). “Such notice to class members need only be reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the settlement proposed and to afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” In re Marsh & McLennan Cos., Inc. Sec. Litig., 2009 WL 5178546, at *12 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 23, 2009). Notice must clearly state essential information regarding the settlement, including the nature of the action, terms of the settlement, and class members’ options. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). At its core, all that notice must do is “fairly apprise the prospective members of the class of the terms of the proposed settlement and of the options that are open to them in connection with the proceedings.” Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc., 396 F.3d 96, 114 (2d Cir. 2005) (citation omitted).

“It is clear that for due process to be satisfied, not every class member need receive actual that $5,000 service awards are appropriate in ACAL and unlawful fee cases. See Norcross v. Tishman Speyer Properties, L.P., Case No. 23-cv-11153-JPO, ECF No. 36 at ¶ 15 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 16, 2024) (approving $5,000 service award in similar ACAL ticket fee case); Russett v. The Northwestern Mutual Life Ins. Co., Case No. 19-cv-07414-KMK, ECF No. 51 at ¶ 15 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 6, 2020) (approving $5,000 service awards in case alleging unlawful fees under New York General Business Law § 399-zzz); Heigl v. Waste Management of New York, LLC, Case No. 19-cv-05487-WFK-ST, ECF No. 35 at ¶ 15 (E.D.N.Y. May 20, 2021) (same).

notice, as long as counsel ‘acted reasonably in selecting means likely to inform persons affected.’” In re Adelpia Commc’ns Corp. Sec. & Derivative Litigs., 271 F. App’x 41, 44 (2d Cir. 2008) (quoting Weigner v. City of N.Y., 852 F.2d 646, 649 (2d Cir. 1988)). The Federal Judicial Center notes that a notice plan is reasonable if it reaches at least 70% of the class. See Fed. Judicial Ctr., Judges’ Class Action Notice and Claims Process Checklist and Plain Language Guide 3 (2010). The notice plan here easily meets these standards, as it provided direct notice to over 93.1% of the Settlement Class. See Epiq Decl. ¶ 18.

At preliminary approval, the Court approved the Parties’ proposed Notice Plan, finding it met the requirements of Rule 23 and due process. See ECF No. 43 ¶ 12. The Plan has now been fully carried out by professional settlement administrator Epiq. Pursuant to the Settlement, Defendant provided Epiq with a list of 117,758 available names, email addresses, and Out-of-Pocket Fee amounts. See Epiq Decl. ¶ 22. After Epiq removed duplicates, the Class List contained 113,968 potential members. See id. Epiq sent the Court-approved notice via email to 108,378 class members with potentially valid email addresses. See id. ¶ 23. A total of 106,143 notices were delivered. Id. ¶ 25. Accordingly, the Court-approved notice successfully reached 93.1% of the Settlement Class directly as of February 17, 2025.⁵ Id. These summary notices also directed Settlement Class Members to the Settlement Website, where they were able to submit claims online; access important court filings, including the Motion for Attorneys’ Fees; and see deadlines and answers to frequently asked questions. See id. ¶ 26. Moreover, Epiq will send two reminder notices both 30 days and 7 days prior to the Claims Deadline to all Settlement Class Members who have yet to file a claim at that time. See id. ¶ 34; see also Agreement ¶

⁵ Defendant, through Epiq, also notified the appropriate state and federal officials pursuant to CAFA. See Epiq Decl. ¶ 19.

4.1(c). Given the broad reach of the notice, and the detailed information provided, the requirements of due process and Rule 23 are easily met.

III. THE SETTLEMENT CLASS SHOULD BE FINALLY CERTIFIED

At the preliminary approval stage, the Court certified the following Settlement Class for settlement purposes:

[A]ll individuals who purchased tickets and paid a processing fee to gain entrance to Defendant's Place of Entertainment from Defendant's Website from August 29, 2022, and through the date of Preliminary Approval.

ECF No. 43 ¶ 9. The Court's preliminary approval order also appointed Philip L. Fraietta and Stefan Bogdanovich of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. as Class Counsel and Plaintiff Daniel Puller as Class Representative, both for settlement purposes. Id. ¶ 8.

In doing so, the Court set forth an extensive analysis of the propriety of certification under Rules 23(a) and 23(b)(3), following the argument presented in the preliminary approval motion. Id. ¶ 10. This Court was correct in certifying the Class for settlement purposes pursuant to Rules 23(a) and 23(b)(3), and nothing has changed to alter the propriety of the Court's certification. The Court should now grant final certification of the Settlement Class.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant his Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement and enter Final Judgment in the form submitted herewith.

Class Counsel

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

DANIEL PULLER, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

LEGENDS OWO, LLC,

Defendant.

Civil Action No.: 1:24-cv-00209-RA

Hon. Ronnie Abrams

DECLARATION OF PHILIP L. FRAIETTA IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S UNOPOSED MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

I, Philip L. Fraietta, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am a partner at Bursor & Fisher, P.A., Class Counsel in this action. I am an attorney at law licensed to practice in the State of New York, and I am a member of the bar of this Court. I make this Declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Settlement and am fully competent to do so. I have personal knowledge of all matters set forth herein unless otherwise indicated, and, if called upon to testify, I could and would competently do so.

2. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of the Parties' Class Action Settlement Agreement, and the exhibits attached thereto.

3. Beginning in November 2023, my firm commenced a pre-suit investigation of companies' violations of the newly-enacted New York Arts and Cultural Affairs Law ("ACAL") § 25.07(4), including Defendant Legends OWO, LLC ("Defendant"). The theory of liability was novel. No case had ever been brought under ACAL § 25.07(4), nor had any court issued an opinion interpreting the statute. Thus, our investigation was extensive and involved in-depth research into the legislative history of ACAL § 25.07(4), issues pertaining to statutory interpretation under New York law, as well as factual research regarding Defendant's website and implementation of processing fees.

4. On January 10, 2024, Plaintiff filed a putative class action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. (ECF No. 1). The material allegations of the Complaint center on Defendant's alleged failure to disclose a $5.00 "processing fee" in connection with the purchase of tickets to its One World Observatory prior to those tickets being selected for purchase, in alleged violation of New York Arts and Cultural Affairs Law ("ACAL") § 25.07(4). See generally id.

5. On March 8, 2024, Defendant responded to the Complaint by filing a motion to dismiss pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(b)(1) and 12(b)(6). (ECF No. 13). On April 19, 2024, Plaintiff opposed Defendant's motion to dismiss (ECF No. 24), and on May 10, 2024, Defendant filed a reply in further support of the motion to dismiss. (ECF No. 31).

6. On April 10, 2024, Defendant filed a request to stay discovery pending the Court's decision on Defendant's motion to dismiss. (ECF No. 20). On April 19, 2024, Plaintiff filed a response opposing Defendant's request to stay discovery. (ECF No. 26). On May 2, 2024, the Court issued an order denying Defendant's request to stay discovery. (ECF No. 29).

7. After the Court's order, the Parties engaged in formal discovery, including the exchange of written discovery and document productions. The Parties exchanged information on issues such as the size and scope of the putative class, specifically the amount of fees Defendant collected and retained during the relevant time period. The Parties also discussed and debated the key facts, legal issues, litigation risks, and potential settlement structures. This information was sufficient for the Parties to assess the strengths and weakness of the claims and defenses and their relative negotiating positions.

8. Counsel for the Parties engaged in numerous conferences to discuss settlement, and on August 2, 2024, the Parties reached agreement on all material terms of a class action settlement and executed a term sheet.

9. On August 6, 2024, the Parties wrote to inform the Court that they reached an agreement in principle to resolve the matter on a class-wide basis. (ECF No. 35). On August 7, 2024, the Court granted the Parties' application, directing Plaintiff to file a motion for preliminary approval on or before September 20, 2024. (ECF No. 36). That deadline was ultimately extended until October 7, 2024. (ECF No. 38).

10. In the weeks following, the Parties engaged a Settlement Administrator and, in consultation with the Settlement Administrator on matters of notice and claims administration, negotiated the full-form Settlement Agreement.

11. Discovery showed that Defendant collected $1,025,000.00 in allegedly unlawful processing fees in connection with ticket sales from Defendant's Website to Settlement Class Members to its Place of Entertainment from August 29, 2022 through and including August 1, 2024. The Parties acknowledge that Defendant changed the purchase flow for tickets on its website to display the processing fee that was the subject of this litigation in a manner that complies with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4).

12. The resulting $975,000.00 proposed Settlement Amount secures extraordinary relief for the class. Based on Defendant's records the proposed Settlement Class includes over 160,000 bookings from August 29, 2022 to and through August 1, 2024, wherein the consumer paid a processing fee to gain entrance to Defendant's One World Observatory.

13. Pursuant to the terms of the proposed Settlement, every member of the Settlement

Class who submits a timely and valid Claim Form will receive a pro rata cash payment from the Settlement Fund as a percentage of the total amount of fees paid to and received by Defendant during the class period, following the deduction of notice and claims administration costs, attorneys' fees and expenses, and the class representative service award, all of which will be paid from the Settlement Fund. Settlement ¶¶ 1.41; 2.1(b).

14. In addition, Defendant acknowledges that they changed their purchase flow process for tickets on its website to display the processing fee that was the subject of this litigation when the ticket is first selected for purchase and agrees to comply with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4). Id. ¶ 2.2.

15. The Court preliminarily approved the Settlement on November 6, 2024. (ECF No. 43).

16. The Parties agreed to the terms of the Settlement through experienced counsel who possessed all the information necessary to evaluate the case, determined all the contours of the proposed class, and reached a fair and reasonable compromise after negotiating the terms of the Settlement at arms' length.

17. Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize that despite our belief in the strength of Plaintiff's claims, and Plaintiff's and the Class's ability to secure an award of damages under ACAL §§ 25.07(4) and 25.33, the expense, duration, and complexity of protracted litigation would be substantial and the outcome of trial uncertain. Thus, the Settlement secures a more proximate and more certain monetary benefit to the Class than continued litigation.

18. Plaintiff and Class Counsel are also mindful that absent a settlement, the success of Defendant's various defenses in this case could deprive the Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members of any potential relief whatsoever. Still today, there is no binding authority on the statute and no case under the statute has progressed to contested class certification, summary judgment, or trial.

19. Defendant is represented by highly experienced attorneys who have made clear that absent a settlement, they were prepared to continue their vigorous defense of this case, including by moving for summary judgment. More specifically, Plaintiff and Class Counsel are aware that Defendants would continue to assert a number of defenses on the merits, including (i) Plaintiff's lack of standing; (ii) Plaintiff's claims are barred by the voluntary payment doctrine; and (iii) Defendant's fees are permitted under ACAL § 25.29, and therefore are not unlawful as Plaintiff alleged. Critically, ACAL § 25.07(4) has hardly been litigated, and thus, the scope of the statute is in dispute as there is no binding authority interpreting the statute. Defendant would also oppose class certification vigorously, and Defendant would take the position that Plaintiff is not entitled to bring her claims on a class wide basis. Defendant would likely argue that individual questions preclude class certification. Defendant would also likely argue that a class action is not a superior method to resolve Plaintiff's claims, and that a class trial would not be manageable. Defendant would also prepare a competent defense at trial. And looking beyond trial, Plaintiff is also keenly aware that Defendant could appeal the merits of any adverse decision.

20. Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that the monetary relief provided by the settlement weighs heavily in favor of a finding that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and well within the range of approval.

21. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a current firm resume for Bursor & Fisher, P.A.

22. As aforementioned, my firm, Bursor & Fisher, P.A., has significant experience in litigating class actions of similar size, scope, and complexity to the instant action. (See Ex. 2; Firm Resume of Bursor & Fisher, P.A.). Indeed, my firm has brought several other cases on behalf of putative class members for violations of ACAL § 25.07(4). See, e.g., See, e.g., Norcross v. Tishman Speyer Properties, L.P., Case No. 1:23-cv-11153-JPO, ECF No. 36 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 16, 2024) (granting final approval of similar ACAL § 25.07(4) settlement); Charles v. Color Factory, LLC, Case No. 1:24-cv-00322-JSR, ECF No. 48 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 7, 2024) (same); Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Case No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA, ECF No. 43 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 6, 2024) (granting preliminary approval of similar ACAL § 25.07(4) settlement and setting final fairness hearing for March 7, 2025).

23. In addition, my firm has also been recognized by courts across the country for its expertise. See Ex. 2; see also Ebin v. Kangadis Food Inc., 297 F.R.D. 561, 566 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 25, 2014) (Rakoff, J.) (“Bursor & Fisher, P.A., are class action lawyers who have experience litigating consumer claims. ... The firm has been appointed class counsel in dozens of cases in both federal and state courts, and has won multi-million dollar verdicts or recoveries in five class action jury trials since 2008.”)¹; In re Welspun Litigation, Case No. 16-cv-06792-RJS (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 26, 2017) (appointing Bursor & Fisher interim lead counsel to represent a proposed nationwide class of purchasers of mislabeled Welspun Egyptian cotton bedding products).

24. Moreover, my firm has served as trial counsel for class action Plaintiffs in six jury trials and has won all six, with recoveries ranging from $21 million to $299 million.

25. Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel believe that the relief provided by the settlement weighs heavily in favor of a finding that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and well within the range of approval.

¹ Bursor & Fisher has since won a sixth jury verdict in Perez v. Rash Curtis & Associates, Case No. 4:16-cv-03396-YGR (N.D. Cal.), for $267 million.

26. The Settlement Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is the only agreement in connection with the proposed settlement.

v.

LEGENDS OWO, LLC,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA

CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement (“Agreement” or “Settlement Agreement”) is entered into by and among: (i) Plaintiff Daniel Puller (“Plaintiff”); (ii) each and every member of the Settlement Class (as defined herein); and (iii) Defendant Legends OWO, LLC (“Defendant”). The Settlement Class and Plaintiff are collectively referred to as the “Plaintiffs” unless otherwise noted. The Plaintiff and the Defendant are collectively referred to herein as the “Parties.” This Agreement is intended by the Parties to fully, finally, and forever resolve, discharge, and settle the Released Claims (as defined herein), upon and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and subject to the final approval of the Court.

RECITALS

A. On January 10, 2024, Plaintiff filed a putative class action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The material allegations of the Complaint center on Defendant’s alleged failure to disclose a “processing fee” for tickets to its One World Observatory prior to those tickets being selected for purchase, in alleged violation of New York Arts and Cultural Affairs Law (“ACAL”) § 25.07(4).

B. On March 8, 2024, Defendant responded to the Complaint with a motion to dismiss, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(1) and 12(b)(6) (ECF No. 13-14). Plaintiff opposed the motion on April 19, 2024 (ECF No. 24) and Defendant filed a reply brief on May 10, 2024 (ECF No. 31).

C. The Court allowed discovery to move forward while the motion to dismiss was pending (ECF No. 29) and entered a Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order on May 16, 2024 (ECF No. 32).

D. The Parties proceeded to exchange written and document discovery, including on issues such as the size and scope of the putative class and the amount of processing fees Defendant collected during the relevant time period. The Parties therefore had sufficient information to assess the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and defenses.

E. After Plaintiff's counsel received the information, counsel for the Parties had numerous conferences, and, on August 2, 2024, the Parties reached an agreement in principle on the terms of a class action settlement.

F. On August 6, 2024, the Parties notified the Court of their agreement in principle and on August 7, 2024, the Court stayed the case while the Parties completed this Agreement (ECF Nos. 35-36).

G. Defendant believes that the claims asserted against it in the above-captioned action (the "Action") have no merit and that it would have prevailed on a motion to dismiss, at summary judgment, and/or at trial, and that Plaintiff would not have been able to certify a class under the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23. Defendant has denied and continues to deny any wrongdoing, liability, or fault and has denied and continues to deny that it committed, or attempted to commit, any wrongful act or violation of law or duty alleged in the Action. Defendant has opposed and continues to oppose certification of a litigation class in this Action. Nonetheless, taking into account the uncertainty, costs and expense, and risks inherent in any litigation, Defendant has concluded it is desirable and beneficial that the Action be fully and finally settled and terminated in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. This Agreement is a compromise. The Agreement, any related documents, and any negotiations relating to or supporting the Agreement shall not be construed as or deemed to be evidence of, an admission, or a concession of liability, fault, or wrongdoing on the part of Defendant, or any of the Released Parties (defined below), with respect to any claim of fault or liability or wrongdoing or damage whatsoever, or with respect to the certifiability of a litigation class.

H. Plaintiff believes that the claims asserted in the Action against Defendant have merit and that he would have prevailed at summary judgment and/or trial. Nonetheless, Plaintiff and Class Counsel (defined below) recognize that Defendant has raised factual and legal defenses that present a risk that Plaintiff may not prevail. Plaintiff and Class Counsel also recognize the expense and delay associated with continued prosecution of the Action against Defendant through a motion to dismiss, class certification, summary judgment, trial, and any subsequent appeals. Plaintiff and Class Counsel also have taken into account the uncertain outcome and risks of litigation, especially in complex class actions, as well as the difficulties inherent in such litigation. Therefore, Plaintiff believes it is desirable that the Released Claims be fully and finally compromised, settled, and resolved with prejudice. Based on its evaluation, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have concluded that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate to the Settlement Class, and that it is in the best interests of the Settlement Class to settle the claims raised in the Action pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and among Plaintiff, the Settlement Class, and each of them, and Defendant, by and through their undersigned counsel that, subject to final approval of the Court after a hearing or hearings as provided for in this Settlement Agreement, in consideration of the benefits flowing to the Parties from the Agreement set forth herein, that the Action and the Released Claims shall be finally and fully compromised, settled, and released, and the Action shall be dismissed with prejudice, upon and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Upon the Effective Date, the Releasing Parties shall be deemed to have, and shall have, expressly waived and relinquished, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the provisions, rights and benefits of § 1542 of the California Civil Code, to the extent applicable, and any other similar statute in any state in the United States, which provides as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

Upon the Effective Date, the Releasing Parties also shall be deemed to have, and shall have, waived any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, or the law of any jurisdiction outside of the United States, which is similar, comparable or equivalent to § 1542 of the California Civil Code. The Releasing Parties acknowledge that they may discover facts in addition to or different from those that they now know or believe to be true with respect to the subject matter of this release, but that it is their intention to finally and forever settle and release the Released Claims, notwithstanding any Unknown Claims they may have, as that term is defined in this Paragraph.

2. SETTLEMENT RELIEF.

2.1 Payments to Settlement Class Members.

(a) By January 3, 2025, Defendant shall pay or cause to be paid the Settlement Amount into the Escrow Account.

(b) Settlement Class Members shall have until the Claims Deadline to submit an Approved Claim. Each Settlement Class Member with an Approved Claim shall be entitled to receive as a Cash Award a pro rata payment from the Settlement Fund. The pro rata payment for each Settlement Class Member will be equal to that Settlement Class Member's Out-of-Pocket Percentage multiplied by the Available Settlement Fund. Proration of amounts due to Settlement Class Members with Approved Claims shall be determined no later than 60 days after Final Judgment.

(c) The Settlement Administrator shall pay from the Settlement Fund all Cash Awards to those Settlement Class Members with Approved Claims by check or electronic payment, at the Settlement Class Member's election. Payments of Cash Awards to all Settlement Class Members with Approved Claims shall be made within ninety (90) days after entry of Final Judgment.

(d) To the extent that any Settlement Class Members do not claim their Cash Awards within one-hundred-eighty (180) days after Cash Awards are distributed in accordance with Section 2.1(b), such Settlement Class Members shall have waived their right to a Cash Award and any unclaimed funds shall be redistributed on a pro rata basis (after first deducting any necessary settlement administration expenses from such unclaimed funds) to all Settlement Class Members who claimed their payments, not to exceed the Individual Out-of-Pocket Fees paid by any such Class Members.

(e) To the extent a secondary distribution would be infeasible, any unclaimed funds shall, subject to Court approval, revert to the Legal Aid Society, a non-sectarian, not-for-profit organization, or another non-sectarian, not-for-profit organization(s) recommended by Class Counsel and approved by the Court.

(f) Subject to the provisions pertaining to the termination or cancellation of the Settlement, as set forth in Paragraph 9, no portion of the Settlement Fund shall revert back to Defendant.

2.2 Prospective Relief. The Parties acknowledge that Defendant has changed the purchase flow for tickets on its website to display the processing fee that was the subject of this litigation in a manner that complies with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4).

3. RELEASE.

3.1 The obligations incurred pursuant to this Settlement Agreement shall be a full and final disposition of the Action and any and all Released Claims as against all Released Parties.

3.2 Upon the Effective Date, the Releasing Parties, and each of them, shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Final Judgment shall have, fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged all Released Claims against the Released Parties, and each of them.

4. NOTICE TO THE CLASS.

4.1 The Notice Plan shall consist of the following:

(a) Settlement Class List. No later than twenty-eight (28) days after the execution of this Agreement, Defendant shall produce to the Settlement Administrator, with a copy to Class Counsel, an electronic list from its records that includes the names, last known email addresses, and the total amount of Out-of-Pocket Fees paid by each Settlement Class Member, to the extent available. This electronic document shall be called the “Class List”.

(b) Direct Notice via Email. No later than twenty-eight (28) days after entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, the Settlement Administrator shall send Notice via email substantially in the form attached as Exhibit B to all Settlement Class Members for whom a valid email address is in the Class List. In the event transmission of email notice results in any “bounce-backs,” the Settlement Administrator shall, if possible, correct any issues that may have caused the “bounce-back” to occur, including running a “skip-trace” to identify any potential alternative email addresses, and make a second attempt to re-send the email notice.

(c) Reminder Notice. Both thirty (30) days prior to the Claims Deadline and seven (7) days prior to the Claims Deadline, the Settlement Administrator shall send Notice via email substantially in the form attached as Exhibit B (with minor, non-material modifications to indicate that it is a reminder email rather than an initial notice), along with an electronic link to the Claim Form, to all Settlement Class Members for whom a valid email address is available in the Class List.

(d) Settlement Website. Within ten (10) days from entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, Notice shall be provided on a website at an available settlement URL (such as, for example, www.oneworldticketfeesettlement.com) which shall be obtained, administered and maintained by the Settlement Administrator and shall provide Settlement Class Members with the ability to file Claim Forms online. Copies of this Settlement Agreement, the long-form Notice, and other pertinent documents and Court filings pertaining to the Settlement (including the motion for attorneys' fees upon its filing), shall be provided on the Settlement Website. The Notice provided on the Settlement Website shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto.

(e) CAFA Notice. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1715, not later than ten (10) days after the Agreement is filed with the Court, the Defendant, with the Settlement Administrator acting on its behalf, shall cause to be served upon the Attorneys General of each U.S. State and Territory in which Settlement Class members reside, the Attorney General of the United States, and other required government officials, notice of the proposed settlement as required by law, subject to Paragraph 5.1 below.

4.2 The Notice shall advise the Settlement Class of their rights, including the right to be excluded from, comment upon, and/or object to the Settlement Agreement or any of its terms. The Notice shall specify that any objection to the Settlement Agreement, and any papers submitted in support of said objection, shall be considered by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing only if, on or before the Objection/Exclusion Deadline approved by the Court and specified in the Notice, the Person making the objection files notice of an intention to do so and at the same time (a) files copies of such papers he or she proposes to be submitted at the Final Approval Hearing with the Clerk of the Court, or alternatively, if the objection is from a Class Member represented by counsel, files any objection through the Court's CM/ECF system, and

(b) sends copies of such papers by mail, hand, or overnight delivery service to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel.

4.3 Any Settlement Class Member who intends to object to this Agreement must present the objection in writing, which must be personally signed by the objector, and must include: (1) the objector's name and address; (2) an explanation of the basis upon which the objector claims to be a Settlement Class Member; (3) all grounds for the objection, including all citations to legal authority and evidence supporting the objection; (4) the name and contact information of any and all attorneys representing, advising, or in any way assisting the objector in connection with the preparation or submission of the objection or who may profit from the pursuit of the objection (the "Objecting Attorneys"); and (5) a statement indicating whether the objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing (either personally or through counsel who files an appearance with the Court in accordance with the Local Rules).

4.4 If a Settlement Class Member or any of the Objecting Attorneys has/have objected to any class action settlement where the objector or the Objecting Attorneys asked for or received any payment in exchange for dismissal of the objection, or any related appeal, without any modification to the settlement, then the objection described in Paragraph 4.3 above must include a statement identifying each such case by full case caption and amount of payment received.

4.5 A Settlement Class Member may request to be excluded from the Settlement Class by timely submitting a request for exclusion on the Settlement Website or sending a written request to the address identified in the Notice. Any such request for exclusion must be submitted on the Settlement Website or be postmarked on or before the Objection/Exclusion Deadline approved by the Court and specified in the Notice. To exercise the right to be excluded, a Person who would otherwise be a Settlement Class Member must timely submit a request for exclusion on the Settlement Website or send a written request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator that contains his/her name and address, that he/she purchased electronic tickets to Defendant's Place of Entertainment from Defendant's Website, from August 29, 2022 to and through August 1, 2024; and paid a processing fee in connection with such purchase, the name and case number of the Action, and a statement that he or she wishes to be excluded from the Settlement Class for purposes of this Settlement. A request to be excluded that does not include all of this information, or that is sent to an address other than that designated in the Notice, or that is not postmarked within the time specified, shall be invalid, and the Person(s) serving such a request shall be a member(s) of the Settlement Class and shall be bound as a Settlement Class Member by this Agreement, if approved. Any member of the Settlement Class who validly elects to be excluded from this Agreement shall not: (i) be bound by any orders or the Final Judgment; (ii) be entitled to relief under this Settlement Agreement; (iii) gain any rights by virtue of this Agreement; or (iv) be entitled to object to any aspect of this Agreement. Any request for exclusion must be personally signed by each Person requesting exclusion. So-called "mass" or "class" opt-outs shall not be allowed. To be valid, a request for exclusion must be submitted on the Settlement Website by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on the date specified in the Notice, or be postmarked or received by the date specified in the Notice.

4.6 The Final Approval Hearing shall be no earlier than ninety (90) days after the Notice described in Paragraph 4.1(b) is provided.

4.7 Any Settlement Class Member who does not, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, timely and validly seek exclusion from the Settlement Class, will be bound by all of the terms of this Agreement, including the terms of the Final Judgment to be entered in the Action and the Releases provided for in the Agreement, and will be barred from bringing any action against any of the Released Parties concerning the Released Claims.

5. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

5.1 The Settlement Administrator shall, under the supervision of the Court, administer the relief provided by this Settlement Agreement by processing Claim Forms and requests for exclusion from the Settlement, and disbursing funds from the Settlement Fund in a rational, responsive, cost effective, and timely manner. The terms of this Agreement, upon approval by the Court, shall at all times govern the scope of the services to be provided by the Settlement Administrator to administer the Settlement, and the terms of any separate contract or agreement entered into between or among the Settlement Administrator and Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, or the Defendant to administer the Settlement shall be consistent in all material respects with the terms of this Agreement. The Settlement Administrator shall maintain reasonably detailed records of its activities under this Agreement. The Settlement Administrator shall maintain all such records as are required by applicable law in accordance with its normal business practices and such records will be made available to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel upon request. The Settlement Administrator shall also provide reports and other information to the Court as the Court may require. The Settlement Administrator shall provide Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel with regular reports at weekly intervals containing information concerning Notice, administration, and implementation of the Settlement Agreement. Should the Court request, the Parties shall submit a timely report to the Court summarizing the work performed by the Settlement Administrator, including a report of all amounts from the Settlement Fund paid to Settlement Class Members. Without limiting the foregoing, the Settlement Administrator shall:

(a) Forward to Defendant's Counsel, with copies to Class Counsel, all original documents and other materials received in connection with the administration of the Settlement, and all copies thereof, within thirty (30) days after the Claims Deadline;

(b) Provide Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel with drafts of all administration related documents, including but not limited to CAFA Notices, follow-up class notices or communications with Settlement Class Members, telephone scripts, website postings or language or other communications with the Settlement Class, at least five (5) days before the Settlement Administrator is required to or intends to publish or use such communications, unless Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel agree to waive this requirement in writing on case by case basis;

(c) Receive requests to be excluded from the Settlement Class and other requests and promptly provide to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel copies thereof. If the Settlement Administrator receives any exclusion forms or other requests after the deadline for the submission of such forms and requests, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly provide copies thereof to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel;

(d) Provide weekly reports to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel, including without limitation, reports regarding the number of Claim Forms and requests for exclusion and/or objections received; and

(e) Make available for inspection by Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel the Claim Forms received by the Settlement Administrator at any time upon reasonable notice.

5.2 The Settlement Administrator shall be obliged to employ reasonable procedures to screen claims for abuse or fraud and deny Claim Forms where there is evidence of abuse or fraud. The Settlement Administrator will reject any claim that does not comply in any material respect with the instructions on the Claim Form or is submitted after the Claims Deadline. Each claimant who submits an invalid Claim Form to the Settlement Administrator must be given a notice of the Claim Form's deficiency and an opportunity to cure the deficiency within twenty-one (21) days of the date of the notice. The Settlement Administrator may contact any Person who has submitted a Claim Form to obtain additional information necessary to verify the Claim Form.

5.3 Defendant's Counsel and Class Counsel shall have the right to challenge the acceptance or rejection of a Claim Form submitted by Settlement Class Members and to obtain and review supporting documentation relating to such Claim Form. The Settlement Administrator shall follow any agreed decisions of Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel as to the validity of any disputed submitted Claim Form. To the extent Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel are not able to agree on the disposition of a challenge, the disputed claim shall be submitted to the Court for binding determination.

5.4. Defendant, the Released Parties, and Defendant's Counsel shall have no responsibility for, interest in, or liability whatsoever with respect to: (i) any act, omission, or determination by Class Counsel, or the Settlement Administrator, or any of their respective designees or agents, in connection with the administration of the Settlement or otherwise; (ii) the management, investment, or distribution of the Settlement Fund; (iii) the allocation of Settlement Funds to Settlement Class Members or the implementation, administration, or interpretation thereof; (iv) the determination, administration, calculation, or payment of any claims asserted against the Settlement Fund; (v) any losses suffered by, or fluctuations in value of, the Settlement Fund; or (vi) the payment or withholding of any Taxes, Tax Expenses, or costs incurred in connection with the taxation of the Settlement Fund or the filing of any federal, state, or local returns.

5.5. All taxes and tax expenses shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund, and shall be timely paid by the Settlement Administrator pursuant to this Agreement and without further order of the Court. Any tax returns prepared for the Settlement Fund (as well as the election set forth therein) shall be consistent with this Agreement and in all events shall reflect that all taxes on the income earned by the Settlement Fund shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund as provided herein. The Released Parties shall have no responsibility or liability for the acts or omissions of the Settlement Administrator or its agents with respect to the payment of taxes or tax expenses.

6. TERMINATION OF SETTLEMENT.

6.1 Subject to Paragraphs 9.1-9.3 below, Defendant or the Class Representative on behalf of the Settlement Class, shall have the right but not the obligation to terminate this Agreement by providing written notice of the election to do so (“Termination Notice”) to all other Parties hereto within twenty-one (21) days of any of the following events: (i) the Court’s refusal to grant Preliminary Approval of this Agreement in any material respect; (ii) the Court’s refusal to grant final approval of this Agreement in any material respect; (iii) the Court’s refusal to enter the Final Judgment in this Action in any material respect; (iv) the date upon which the Final Judgment is modified or reversed in any material respect by an appellate court with jurisdiction; or (v) the date upon which an Alternate Judgment, as defined in Paragraph 9.1(d) of this Agreement is modified or reversed in any material respect by an appellate court with jurisdiction.

6.2 Confirmatory Discovery. Discovery has demonstrated that Defendant collected approximately $1,025,000 in processing fees in connection with ticket sales from Defendant’s Website to Settlement Class Members to its Place of Entertainment from August 29, 2022 to August 1, 2024.

7. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER AND FINAL APPROVAL ORDER.

7.1 Promptly after the execution of this Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel shall file this Agreement together with the Exhibits annexed hereto with the Court and shall move the Court for: Preliminary Approval of the settlement set forth in this Agreement; certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only; appointment of Class Counsel and the Class Representative; and entry of a Preliminary Approval Order, which order shall set a Final Approval Hearing date and approve the Notice and Claim Form for dissemination substantially in the form of Exhibits A, B, and C hereto. The Preliminary Approval Order shall also authorize the Parties, without further approval from the Court, to agree to and adopt such amendments, modifications and expansions of the Settlement Agreement and its implementing documents (including all exhibits to this Agreement) so long as they are consistent in all material respects with the terms of the Settlement Agreement and do not limit or impair the rights of the Settlement Class or materially expand the obligations of Defendant.

7.2 At the time of the submission of this Agreement to the Court as described above, Class Counsel shall request that, after Notice is given, the Court hold a Final Approval Hearing and finally approve the Settlement of the Action as set forth herein.

7.3 After Notice is given, the Parties shall request and seek to obtain from the Court a Final Judgment, which will (among other things):

(a) find that the Court has personal jurisdiction over all Settlement Class Members and that the Court has subject matter jurisdiction to approve the Agreement, including all exhibits thereto;

(b) approve the Settlement Agreement and the proposed settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate as to, and in the best interests of, the Settlement Class Members; direct the Parties and their counsel to implement and consummate the Agreement according to its terms and provisions; and declare the Agreement to be binding on, and have res judicata and preclusive effect in all pending and future lawsuits or other proceedings maintained by or on behalf of Plaintiffs and Releasing Parties;

(c) find that the Notice implemented pursuant to the Agreement (1) constitutes the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (2) constitutes notice that is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, their right to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed Agreement, and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (3) is reasonable and constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice; and (4) meets all applicable requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, and the rules of the Court;

(d) find that the Class Representative and Class Counsel adequately represent the Settlement Class for purposes of entering into and implementing the Agreement;

(e) dismiss the Action (including all individual claims and Settlement Class Claims presented thereby) on the merits and with prejudice, without fees or costs to any party except as provided in the Settlement Agreement;

(f) incorporate the release set forth above, make the release effective as of the date of the Effective Date, and forever discharge the Released Parties as set forth herein;

(g) permanently bar and enjoin all Settlement Class Members who have not been properly excluded from the Settlement Class from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, or participating (as class members or otherwise) in any lawsuit or other action in any jurisdiction based on the Released Claims;

(h) without affecting the finality of the Final Judgment for purposes of appeal, retain jurisdiction as to all matters relating to administration, consummation, enforcement, and interpretation of the Settlement Agreement and the Final Judgment, and for any other necessary purpose; and

(i) incorporate any other provisions, as the Court deems necessary and just.

8. CLASS COUNSEL’S ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES; SERVICE AWARD.

8.1 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h) and ACAL § 25.33, Defendant agrees that Class Counsel shall be entitled to seek an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs out of the Settlement Fund in an amount to be determined by the Court as the Fee Award. With no consideration given or received, Class Counsel will limit its petition for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses to no more than one-third of the Settlement Fund (i.e., $325,000). Payment of the Fee Award shall be made from the Settlement Fund and should the Court award less than the amount sought by Class Counsel, the difference in the amount sought and the amount ultimately awarded pursuant to this Paragraph shall remain in the Settlement Fund.

8.2 The Fee Award shall be payable by the Settlement Administrator within ten (10) days after entry of the Court’s Final Judgment, subject to Class Counsel executing the Undertaking Regarding Attorneys’ Fees and Costs (the “Undertaking”) attached hereto as Exhibit D, and providing all payment routing information and tax I.D. numbers for Class Counsel. Payment of the Fee Award shall be made from the Settlement Fund by wire transfer to Class Counsel in accordance with wire instructions to be provided by Class Counsel, and completion of necessary forms, including but not limited to W-9 forms. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if for any reason the Final Judgment is reversed or rendered void as a result of an appeal(s) then any Persons or firms who shall have received the funds shall be severally liable for payments made pursuant to this subparagraph, and shall return such funds to the Settlement Fund. Additionally, should any parties to the Undertaking dissolve, merge, declare bankruptcy, become insolvent, or cease to exist prior to the final payment to Class Members, those parties shall execute a new undertaking guaranteeing repayment of funds within fourteen (14) days of such an occurrence.

8.3 Class Counsel intends to file a motion for Court approval of a Service Award to the Class Representative, to be paid from the Settlement Fund, in addition to any funds the Class Representative stands to otherwise receive from the Settlement. With no consideration having been given or received for this limitation, Plaintiff will seek no more than $5,000 as a Service Award. Should the Court award less than this amount, the difference in the amount sought and the amount ultimately awarded pursuant to this Paragraph shall remain in the Settlement Fund. Such Service Award shall be paid from the Settlement Fund (in the form of a check to the Class Representative that is sent care of Class Counsel), within five (5) business days after entry of the Final Judgment if there have been no objections to the Settlement Agreement, and, if there have been such objections, within five (5) business days after the Effective Date.

9. CONDITIONS OF SETTLEMENT, EFFECT OF DISAPPROVAL, CANCELLATION OR TERMINATION.

9.1 The Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement shall not occur unless and until each of the following events occurs and shall be the date upon which the last (in time) of the following events occurs:

- (a) The Parties and their counsel have executed this Agreement;
- (b) The Court has entered the Preliminary Approval Order;
- (c) The Court has entered an order finally approving the Agreement, following Notice to the Settlement Class, as provided in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and has entered the Final Judgment, or a judgment consistent with this Agreement in all material respects; and

- (d) The Final Judgment has become Final or, in the event that the Court enters an Alternate Judgment, such Alternate Judgment becomes Final.

9.2 If some or all of the conditions specified in Paragraph 9.1 are not met, or in the event that this Agreement is not approved by the Court, or the Settlement set forth in this Agreement is terminated or fails to become effective in accordance with its terms, then this Settlement Agreement shall be canceled and terminated subject to Paragraph 6.1, unless Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel mutually agree in writing to proceed with this Agreement. If any Party is in material breach of the terms hereof, any other Party, provided that it is in substantial compliance with the terms of this Agreement, may terminate this Agreement on notice to all of the Parties and Settlement Class Members (which notice may be given by the Settlement Administrator via email to the email addresses on record for Settlement Class Members). Notwithstanding anything herein, the Parties agree that the Court's failure to approve, in whole or in part, the Fee Award to be requested by Class Counsel and/or the Service Award to be requested for the Class Representative, as set forth in Section 8 above, shall not prevent the Agreement from becoming effective, nor shall it be grounds for termination.

9.3 If this Agreement is terminated or fails to become effective for the reasons set forth in Paragraphs 6.1 and 9.1-9.2 above, the Parties shall be restored to their respective positions in the Action as of the date of the signing of this Agreement. In such event, any Final Judgment or other order entered by the Court in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be treated as vacated, nunc pro tunc, and the Parties shall be returned to the status quo ante with respect to the Action as if this Agreement had never been entered into. Within five (5) business days after written notification of termination as provided in this Agreement is sent to the other Parties, the Settlement Fund (including accrued interest thereon), less any Settlement Administration costs actually incurred, paid or payable and less any taxes and tax expenses paid, due or owing, shall be refunded by the Settlement Administrator to Defendant, based upon written instructions provided by Defendant's Counsel. In the event that the Final Judgment or any material part thereof is vacated, overturned, reversed, or rendered void as a result of any timely filed appeal, or the Settlement Agreement is voided, rescinded, or otherwise terminated for any other reason, Class Counsel shall, within thirty (30) days thereof repay to Defendant, based upon written instructions provided by Defendant's Counsel, the full amount of the Fee Award, including any accrued interest, and shall cause Class Representative to repay to Defendant, based upon written instructions provided by Defendant's Counsel, the full amount of the Service Award, including any accrued interest. In the event the Fee Award, Service Award, or any part thereof is vacated, modified, reversed, or rendered void as a result of a timely filed appeal, Class Counsel shall within thirty (30) days thereof repay, or cause Class Representative to repay, to the Settlement Fund, based upon written instructions provided by the Settlement Administrator, the Fee Award and/or Service Award, in the amount vacated or modified, including any accrued interest.

10. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

10.1 The Parties: (a) acknowledge that it is their intent to consummate this Settlement Agreement; and (b) agree, subject to their fiduciary and other legal obligations, to cooperate to the extent reasonably necessary to effectuate and implement all terms and conditions of this Agreement, to exercise their reasonable best efforts to accomplish the foregoing terms and conditions of this Agreement, to secure final approval, and to defend the Final Judgment through any and all appeals. Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel agree to cooperate with one another in seeking Court approval of the Settlement Agreement, entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, and the Final Judgment, and promptly to agree upon and execute all such other documentation as may be reasonably required to obtain final approval of the Agreement.

10.2 The Parties intend this Settlement Agreement to be a final and complete resolution of all disputes between them with respect to the Released Claims by Plaintiff, the Settlement Class and each or any of them, on the one hand, against the Released Parties, and each or any of the Released Parties, on the other hand. Accordingly, the Parties agree not to assert in any forum that the Action was brought by Plaintiff or defended by Defendant, or each or any of them, in bad faith or without a reasonable basis.

10.3 The Parties have relied upon the advice and representation of counsel, selected by them, concerning their respective legal liability for the claims hereby released. The Parties have read and understand fully the above and foregoing Agreement and have been fully advised as to the legal effect thereof by counsel of their own selection and intend to be legally bound by the same.

10.4 Whether or not the Effective Date occurs or the Settlement Agreement is terminated, neither this Agreement nor the settlement contained herein or any term, provision or definition therein, nor any act or communication performed or document executed in the course of negotiating, implementing or seeking approval pursuant to or in furtherance of this Agreement or the settlement:

(a) is, may be deemed, or shall be used, offered or received in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency, arbitral proceeding or other tribunal against the Released Parties, or each or any of them, as an admission, concession or evidence of, the validity of any Released Claims, the truth of any fact alleged by the Plaintiff, the deficiency of any defense that has been or could have been asserted in the Action, the violation of any law or statute, the definition or scope of any term or provision, the reasonableness of the Settlement Amount or the Fee Award, or of any alleged wrongdoing, liability, negligence, or fault of the Released Parties, or any of them;

(b) is, may be deemed, or shall be used, offered or received against any Released Party, as an admission, concession or evidence of any fault, misrepresentation or omission with respect to any statement or written document approved or made by the Released Parties, or any of them;

(c) is, may be deemed, or shall be used, offered or received against the Released Parties, or each or any of them, as an admission or concession with respect to any liability, negligence, fault or wrongdoing or statutory meaning (including but not limited to the definitions of Michigan Subscriber Information and Settlement Class) as against any Released Parties, or supporting the certification of a litigation class, in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency or other tribunal. However, the settlement, as set forth herein, this Agreement, and any acts performed and/or documents executed in furtherance of or pursuant to this Agreement and/or the settlement, as set forth herein, may be used in any proceedings as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Agreement. Further, if this Settlement Agreement is approved by the Court, any Party or any of the Released Parties may file this Agreement and/or the Final Judgment in any action that may be brought against such Party or Parties in order to support a defense or counterclaim based on principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction, or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense or counterclaim;

(d) is, may be deemed, or shall be construed against Plaintiff, the Settlement Class, the Releasing Parties, or each or any of them, or against the Released Parties, or each or any of them, as an admission or concession that the consideration to be given hereunder represents an amount equal to, less than or greater than that amount that could have or would have been recovered after trial; and

(e) is, may be deemed, or shall be construed as or received in evidence as an admission or concession against Plaintiff, the Settlement Class, the Releasing Parties, or each and any of them, or against the Released Parties, or each or any of them, that any of Plaintiffs' claims are with or without merit or that damages recoverable in the Action would have exceeded or would have been less than any particular amount.

10.5 The Parties acknowledge that (a) any certification of the Settlement Class as set forth in this Agreement, including certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes in the context of Preliminary Approval, shall not be deemed a concession that certification of a litigation class is appropriate, or that the Settlement Class definition would be appropriate for a litigation class, nor would Defendant be precluded from challenging class certification in further proceedings in the Action or in any other action if the Settlement Agreement is not finalized or finally approved; (b) if the Settlement Agreement is not finally approved by the Court for any reason whatsoever, then any certification of the Settlement Class will be void, the Parties and the Action shall be restored to the status quo ante, and no doctrine of waiver, estoppel or preclusion will be asserted in any litigated certification proceedings in the Action or in any other action; and (c) no agreements made by or entered into by Defendant in connection with the Settlement may be used by Plaintiffs, any person in the Settlement Class, or any other person to establish any of the elements of class certification in any litigated certification proceedings, whether in the Action or any other judicial proceeding.

10.6. No person or entity shall have any claim against the Class Representative, Class Counsel, the Settlement Administrator or any other agent designated by Class Counsel, or the Released Parties and/or their counsel, arising from distributions made substantially in accordance with this Agreement. The Parties and their respective counsel and all other Released Parties shall have no liability whatsoever for the investment or distribution of the Settlement Fund or the determination, administration, calculation, or payment of any claim or nonperformance of the Settlement Administrator, the payment or withholding of taxes (including interest and penalties) owed by the Settlement Fund, or any losses incurred in connection therewith.

10.7. All proceedings with respect to the administration, processing and determination of Claim Forms and settlement payments and the determination of all controversies relating thereto, including disputed questions of law and fact with respect to the validity of Claim Forms and settlement payments, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court.

10.8 The headings used herein are used for the purpose of convenience only and are not meant to have legal effect.

10.9 The waiver by one Party of any breach of this Agreement by any other Party shall not be deemed as a waiver of any other prior or subsequent breaches of this Agreement.

10.10 All of the Exhibits annexed to this Agreement are material and integral parts thereof and are fully incorporated herein by this reference.

10.11 This Agreement and its Exhibits set forth the entire agreement and understanding of the Parties with respect to the matters set forth herein, and supersede all prior negotiations, agreements, arrangements and undertakings with respect to the matters set forth herein. No representations, warranties or inducements have been made to any Party concerning this Settlement Agreement or the Exhibits annexed hereto other than the representations, warranties and covenants contained and memorialized in such documents. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by or on behalf of all Parties or their respective successors-in-interest.

10.12 Except as otherwise provided herein, each Party shall bear its own costs.

10.13 Plaintiff represents and warrants that he has not assigned any claim or right or interest therein as against the Released Parties to any other Person or Party and that he is fully entitled to release the same.

10.14 Each counsel or other Person executing this Settlement Agreement, any of the Exhibits annexed hereto, or any related settlement documents on behalf of any Party hereto, hereby warrants and represents that such Person has the full authority to do so and has the authority to take appropriate action required or permitted to be taken pursuant to the Agreement to effectuate its terms.

10.15 This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts. Signature by digital means, facsimile, or in PDF format will constitute sufficient execution of this Agreement. All executed counterparts and each of them shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. A complete set of original executed counterparts shall be filed with the Court if the Court so requests. This Agreement is not binding on the Parties until fully executed by each of the Parties hereto.

10.16 This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors and assigns of the Parties hereto and the Released Parties.

10.17 The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to implementation and enforcement of the terms of this Agreement, and all Parties hereto submit to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of implementing and enforcing the settlement embodied in this Agreement.

10.18 This Settlement Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

10.19 This Agreement is deemed to have been prepared by counsel for all Parties, as a result of arm's-length negotiations among the Parties. Because all Parties have contributed substantially and materially to the preparation of this Agreement, it shall not be construed more strictly against one Party than another.

10.20 Where this Agreement requires notice to the Parties, such notice shall be sent to the undersigned counsel: Philip L. Fraietta, Bursor & Fisher, P.A., 1330 Avenue of the Americas, 32nd Floor, New York, NY 10019, pfraietta@bursor.com; Matthew M. Gurvitz,

Re: Legal Notice of Class Action Settlement

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT
Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA
(United States District Court for the Southern District of New York)

Our Records Indicate You Purchased Electronic Tickets to One World Observatory between August 29, 2022 and August 1, 2024 and Paid a Fee In Connection With Such Purchase, and May Be Entitled to a Payment From a Class Action Settlement.

A court authorized this notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

This notice is to inform you that a settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit claiming that Legends OWO, LLC (“Defendant”), failed to properly disclose a fee for electronic tickets to the One World Observatory prior to those tickets being selected for purchase, in alleged violation of New York Arts and Cultural Affairs Law (“ACAL”) § 25.07(4). Defendant denies that it violated any law, but has agreed to the settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the case.

Am I A Class Member? Our records indicate you purchased electronic tickets to One World Observatory between August 29, 2022 and August 1, 2024, and paid a fee in connection with such purchase.

What Does The Settlement Provide? A Settlement Fund of $975,000 has been established to pay the Settlement Class, together with notice and administration expenses, approved attorneys’ fees and costs, and a service award to the Class Representative.¹ Additionally, as part of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant acknowledges that it has changed the purchase flow for tickets on its website to display the “Taxes & Fees” that was the subject of this litigation when the ticket is first selected for purchase and which the parties agree is in compliance with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4).

How Do I Get A Payment? To receive a pro rata share of the Settlement Fund, which will be based on the total amount of fees you paid, you must submit a timely and complete Claim Form no later than [claims deadline]. You can file a claim by clicking [here.] Your payment will be made via PayPal, Venmo, Zelle, or check, at your election. Claim Forms must be submitted online by 11:59 p.m. EST on [DATE] or postmarked and mailed by [DATE].

What Are My Other Options? You may exclude yourself from the Settlement Class by sending a letter to the Settlement Administrator no later than [objection/exclusion deadline]. If you exclude yourself, you cannot receive a settlement payment, but you keep any rights you may have to sue the Defendant over the legal issues in the lawsuit. You and/or your lawyer have the right to appear before the Court and/or object to the proposed settlement. Your written objection must be filed no later than [objection/exclusion deadline]. Specific instructions about how to object to, or exclude yourself from, the Settlement are available at www.oneworldticketfeesettlement.com. If you file a claim or do nothing, and the Court approves the Settlement Agreement, you will be bound by all of the Court's orders and judgments. In addition, your claims relating to the alleged collection by Defendant of fees in connection with electronic ticket sales to its One World Observatory from August 29, 2022 through and including August 1, 2024 will be released.

Who Represents Me? The Court has appointed lawyers Philip L. Fraietta and Stefan Bogdanovich of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. to represent the class. These attorneys are called Class Counsel. You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer in this case, you may hire one at your expense.

When Will The Court Consider The Proposed Settlement? The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing at [time] m. on [date] in Courtroom 1506 at the Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, NY 10007. At that hearing, the Court will: hear any objections concerning the fairness of the settlement; determine the fairness of the settlement; decide whether to approve Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and costs; and decide whether to award Class Representative Daniel Puller $5,000 from the Settlement Fund for his service in helping to bring and settle this case. Defendant has agreed that Class Counsel may be paid reasonable attorneys' fees from the Settlement Fund in an amount to be determined by the Court. Class Counsel will seek no more than one-third of the Settlement Fund, but the Court may award less than this amount.

How Do I Get More Information? For more information, including the full Notice and Settlement Agreement, go to www.oneworldticketfeesettlement.com, contact the Settlement Administrator at 1-800-___ - ___ or One World Observatory Ticket Fee Settlement Administrator, [address], or call Class Counsel at 1-646-837-7150.

If You Purchased Electronic Tickets to One World Observatory between August 29, 2022 and August 1, 2024 and Paid a Fee In Connection With Such Purchase, You May Be Entitled to a Payment From a Class Action Settlement.

A court authorized this notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- A settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit claiming that Legends OWO, LLC (“Defendant”), failed to properly disclose a fee for electronic tickets to its One World Observatory prior to those tickets being selected for purchase, in alleged violation of New York Arts and Cultural Affairs Law (“ACAL”) § 25.07(4). Defendant denies that it violated any law, but has agreed to the settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the case.
- You are included in the settlement if you purchased electronic tickets to One World Observatory between August 29, 2022 and August 1, 2024 and paid a fee in connection with such purchase. Persons included in the settlement will be eligible to receive a pro rata portion of the Settlement Fund, which will be based on the total amount of fees they paid.
- Read this notice carefully. Your legal rights are affected whether you act, or don’t act.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why was this Notice issued?

A Court authorized this Notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to give final approval to the settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the settlement, and your legal rights.

QUESTIONS? CALL (800) 000-0000 TOLL FREE, OR VISIT WWW.ONEWORLDTICKETFEESSETTLEMENT.COM

The case is called Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA. The person who sued is called the Plaintiff. The Defendant is Legends OWO, LLC.

2. What is a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called class representatives (in this case, Daniel Puller) sue on behalf of a group or a “class” of people who have similar claims. In a class action, the court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Settlement Class.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

This lawsuit claims that Defendant failed to properly disclose a fee for electronic tickets to its One World Observatory prior to those tickets being selected for purchase, in alleged violation of ACAL § 25.07(4). Defendant denies that it violated any law, but has agreed to the settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the case.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

The Court has not decided whether the Plaintiff or the Defendant should win this case. Instead, both sides agreed to a settlement. That way, they avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with ongoing litigation, and Settlement Class Members will get compensation sooner rather than, if at all, after the completion of a trial.

WHO’S INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am in the Settlement Class?

The Court decided that everyone who fits the following description is a member of the Settlement Class:

All individuals in the United States who purchased electronic tickets and paid a processing fee to gain entrance to Defendant’s Place of Entertainment from Defendant’s website from August 29, 2022, and through August 1, 2024.

“Place of Entertainment” means One World Observatory.

“Defendant’s Website” means <https://www.oneworldobservatory.com/>.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

6. What does the settlement provide?

Monetary Relief. A Settlement Fund will be created totaling $975,000. Payments to Settlement Class Members, and the cost to administer the settlement, the cost to inform people about the settlement, attorneys' fees (inclusive of litigation costs), and an award to the Class Representative will also come out of this fund (see Question 12).

Prospective Relief. Defendant acknowledges that it has changed the purchase flow for tickets on its website to display the processing fee that was the subject of this litigation when the ticket is first selected for purchase and which the parties agree is in compliance with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4).

A detailed description of the settlement benefits can be found in the Settlement Agreement, a copy of which is accessible on the Settlement Website by clicking here.
[insert hyperlink]

7. How much will my payment be?

To receive a pro rata share of the Settlement Fund, which will be based on the total amount of fees you paid, you must submit a timely and complete Claim Form no later than [claims deadline]. You can file a claim by clicking here. Your payment will be by PayPal, Venmo, Zelle, or check, at your election. Claim Forms must be submitted online by 11:59 p.m. EST on [DATE] or postmarked and mailed by [DATE]. You can contact Class Counsel at (646) 837-7150 to inquire as to the number of claims and/or requests for exclusion that have been received to date.

8. When will I get my payment?

The hearing to consider the fairness of the settlement is scheduled for [Final Approval Hearing Date]. If the Court approves the settlement, eligible Settlement Class Members whose claims were approved by the Settlement Administrator will receive their payment 60 days after Defendant makes its last installment payment into the Settlement Fund. The payment will be made in the form of a check, unless you elect to receive payment by PayPal, Zelle, or Venmo, and all checks will expire and become void 180 days after they are issued.

HOW TO GET BENEFITS

9. How do I get a payment?

If you are a Settlement Class Member and you want to get a payment, you must complete and submit a Claim Form by [Claims Deadline]. Claim Forms can be found and submitted by clicking here [hyperlink], or by printing and mailing a paper Claim Form, copies of which are available for download here [hyperlink].

We also encourage you to submit your claim on-line. Not only is it easier and more secure, but it is completely free and takes only minutes!

REMAINING IN THE SETTLEMENT

10. What am I giving up if I stay in the Settlement Class?

If the settlement becomes Final, you will give up your right to sue the Defendant and other Released Parties for the claims being resolved by this settlement. The specific claims you are giving up against the Defendant are described in the Settlement Agreement. You will be “releasing” the Defendant and certain of its affiliates, employees and representatives as described in Section 1.33 of the Settlement Agreement. Unless you exclude yourself (see Question 13), you are “releasing” the claims, regardless of whether you claim your electronic payment or not. The Settlement Agreement is available through the “court documents” link on the website.

The Settlement Agreement describes the released claims with specific descriptions, so read it carefully. If you have any questions, you can talk to the lawyers listed in Question 11 for free or you can, of course, talk to your own lawyer if you have questions about what this means.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

11. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

The Court has appointed Philip L. Fraietta and Stefan Bogdanovich of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. to be the attorneys representing the Settlement Class. They are called “Class Counsel.” They believe, after conducting an extensive investigation, that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer in this case, you may hire one at your expense.

12. How will the lawyers be paid?

The Defendant has agreed that Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees and costs may be paid out of the Settlement Fund in an amount to be determined by the Court. The fee petition will seek no more than one-third of the Settlement Fund, inclusive of reimbursement of their costs and expenses; the Court may award less than this amount. Under the Settlement Agreement, any amount awarded to Class Counsel will be paid out of the Settlement Fund.

Subject to approval by the Court, Defendant has agreed that the Class Representative may be paid a service award of $5,000 from the Settlement Fund for his services in helping to bring and resolve this case.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

13. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must submit a request for exclusion by 11:59 p.m. EST on [objection/exclusion deadline]. Requests for exclusion may be submitted either on the Settlement Website (via the online form accessible here [insert hyperlink]) or by mailing or otherwise deliver a letter (or request for exclusion) stating that you want to be excluded from the Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA settlement. Your letter or request for exclusion must also include your name, your address, a statement that you purchased electronic tickets to One World Observatory from Defendant's Website from August 29, 2022 through and including August 1, 2024; and paid a processing fee in connection with such purchase, your signature, the name and number of this case, and a statement that you wish to be excluded. If you choose to submit a request for exclusion by mail, you must mail or deliver your exclusion request, postmarked no later than [Objection/Exclusion Deadline], to the following address:

One World Observatory Ticket Fee Settlement
0000 Street
City, ST 00000

14. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue the Defendant for the claims being resolved by this settlement.

15. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive any payment from the Settlement Fund.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

16. How do I object to the settlement?

If you are a member of the Settlement Class, you can object to the settlement if you don't like any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must file with the Court a letter or brief stating that you object to the settlement in Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA, and identify all your reasons for your objections (including citations and supporting evidence) and attach any materials you rely on for your objections. Your letter or brief must also include your name, your address, the basis upon which you claim to be a member of the Settlement Class, the name and contact information of any and all attorneys representing, advising, or in any way assisting you in connection with your objection, and your signature. If you, or an attorney assisting you with your objection, have ever objected to any class action settlement where you or the objecting attorney has asked for or received payment in exchange for dismissal of the objection (or any related appeal) without modification to the settlement, you must include a statement in your objection identifying each such case by full case caption. You must also mail or deliver a copy of your letter or brief to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel listed below.

Class Counsel will file with the Court and post on this website its request for attorneys' fees by [two weeks prior to objection deadline].

If you want to appear and speak at the Final Approval Hearing to object to the settlement, with or without a lawyer (explained below in answer to Question Number 20), you must say so in your letter or brief. File the objection with the Court (or mail the objection to the Court) and mail a copy of the objection to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel, at the addresses below, postmarked no later than [objection deadline].

Court	Class Counsel	Defendant's Counsel
The Honorable Ronnie Abrams Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse 40 Foley Square, Courtroom 1506 New York, NY 10007	Philip L. 17. What's the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the settlement?

Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself from the Settlement Class is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing at [redacted] m. on [date] Courtroom 1506 at the Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, NY 10007. The purpose of the hearing will be for the Court to determine whether to approve the settlement as fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class; to consider the Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and expenses; and to consider the request for an incentive award to the Class Representative. At that hearing, the Court will be available to hear any objections and arguments concerning the fairness of the settlement.

The hearing may be postponed to a different date or time without notice, so it is a good idea to check for updates by visiting the Settlement Website at www.oneworldticketfeesettlement.com or calling (800) 000-0000. If, however, you timely objected to the settlement and advised the Court that you intend to appear and speak at the Final Approval Hearing, you will receive notice of any change in the date of the Final Approval Hearing.

19. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. But, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection or comment, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you filed and mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay another lawyer to attend, but it's not required.

20. May I speak at the hearing?

Yes. You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must include in your letter or brief objecting to the settlement a statement saying that it is your "Notice of Intent to Appear in Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA." It must include your name, address, telephone number, and signature as well as the name and address of your lawyer, if one is appearing for you. Your objection and notice of intent to appear must be filed with the Court and postmarked no later than [Objection Deadline], and be sent to the addresses listed in Question 16.

FIRM RESUME

With offices in Florida, New York, and California, BURSOR & FISHER lawyers have represented both plaintiffs and defendants in state and federal courts throughout the country.

The lawyers at our firm have an active civil trial practice, having won multi-million-dollar verdicts or recoveries in six of six class action jury trials since 2008. Our most recent class action trial victory came in May 2019 in Perez v. Rash Curtis & Associates, in which Mr. Bursor served as lead trial counsel and won a $267 million jury verdict against a debt collector found to have violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. During the pendency of the defendant's appeal, the case settled for $75.6 million, the largest settlement in the history of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act.

In August 2013 in Ayyad v. Sprint Spectrum L.P., in which Mr. Bursor served as lead trial counsel, we won a jury verdict defeating Sprint's $1.06 billion counterclaim and securing the class's recovery of more than $275 million in cash and debt relief.

In Thomas v. Global Vision Products, Inc. (II), we obtained a $50 million jury verdict in favor of a certified class of 150,000 purchasers of the Avacor Hair Regrowth System. The legal trade publication VerdictSearch reported that this was the second largest jury verdict in California in 2009, and the largest in any class action.

The lawyers at our firm have an active class action practice and have won numerous appointments as class counsel to represent millions of class members, including customers of Honda, Verizon Wireless, AT&T Wireless, Sprint, Haier America, and Michaels Stores as well as purchasers of Avacor™, Hydroxycut, and Sensa™ products. SCOTT A. BURSOR

Mr. Bursor has an active civil trial practice, having won multi-million verdicts or recoveries in six of six civil jury trials since 2008. Mr. Bursor's most recent victory came in May 2019 in Perez v. Rash Curtis & Associates, in which Mr. Bursor served as lead trial counsel and won a $267 million jury verdict against a debt collector for violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA).

In Ayyad v. Sprint Spectrum L.P. (2013), where Mr. Bursor served as lead trial counsel, the jury returned a verdict defeating Sprint's $1.06 billion counterclaim and securing the class's recovery of more than $275 million in cash and debt relief.

In Thomas v. Global Vision Products, Inc. (2009), the jury returned a $50 million verdict in favor of the plaintiff and class represented by Mr. Bursor. The legal trade publication VerdictSearch reported that this was the second largest jury verdict in California in 2009.

Class actions are rarely tried to verdict. Other than Mr. Bursor and his partner Mr. Fisher, we know of no lawyer that has tried more than one class action to a jury. Mr. Bursor's perfect record of six wins in six class action jury trials, with recoveries ranging from $21 million to $299 million, is unmatched by any other lawyer. Each of these victories was hard-fought against top trial lawyers from the biggest law firms in the United States.

Mr. Bursor graduated from the University of Texas Law School in 1996. He served as Articles Editor of the Texas Law Review, and was a member of the Board of Advocates and Order of the Coif. Prior to starting his own practice, Mr. Bursor was a litigation associate at a large New York based law firm where he represented telecommunications, pharmaceutical, and technology companies in commercial litigation.

Mr. Bursor is a member of the state bars of New York, Florida, and California, as well as the bars of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second, Third, Fourth, Sixth, Ninth and Eleventh Circuits, and the bars of the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, the Northern, Central, Southern and Eastern Districts of California, the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida, and the Eastern District of Michigan.

Representative Cases

Mr. Bursor was appointed lead or co-lead class counsel to the largest, 2nd largest, and 3rd largest classes ever certified. Mr. Bursor has represented classes including more than 160 million class members, roughly 1 of every 2 Americans. Listed below are recent cases that are representative of Mr. Bursor's practice:

Mr. Bursor negotiated and obtained court-approval for two landmark settlements in Nguyen v. Verizon Wireless and Zill v. Sprint Spectrum (the largest and 2nd largest classes ever certified). These settlements required Verizon and Sprint to open their wireless networks to third-party devices and applications. These settlements are believed to be the most significant legal development affecting the telecommunications industry since 1968, when the FCC's Carterfone decision similarly opened up AT&T's wireline telephone network.

Mr. Bursor was the lead trial lawyer in Ayyad v. Sprint Spectrum, L.P. representing a class of approximately 2 million California consumers who were charged an early termination fee under a Sprint cellphone contract, asserting claims that such fees were unlawful liquidated damages under the California Civil Code, as well as other statutory and common law claims. After a five-week combined bench-and-jury trial, the jury returned a verdict in June 2008 and the Court issued a Statement of Decision in December 2008 awarding the plaintiffs $299 million in cash and debt cancellation. Mr. Bursor served as lead trial counsel for this class again in 2013 during a month-long jury trial in which Sprint asserted a $1.06 billion counterclaim against the class. Mr. Bursor secured a verdict awarding Sprint only $18.4 million, the exact amount calculated by the class's damages expert. This award was less than 2% of the damages Sprint sought, less than 6% of the amount of the illegal termination fees Sprint charged to class members. In December 2016, after more than 13 years of litigation, the case was settled for $304 million, including $79 million in cash payments plus $225 million in debt cancellation.

Mr. Bursor was the lead trial lawyer in White v. Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless representing a class of approximately 1.4 million California consumers who were charged an early termination fee under a Verizon cellphone contract, asserting claims that such fees were unlawful liquidated damages under the California Civil Code, as well as other statutory and common law claims. In July 2008, after Mr. Bursor presented plaintiffs' case-in-chief, rested, then cross-examined Verizon's principal trial witness, Verizon agreed to settle the case for a $21 million cash payment and an injunction restricting Verizon's ability to impose early termination fees in future subscriber agreements.

Mr. Bursor was the lead trial lawyer in Thomas v. Global Visions Products Inc. Mr. Bursor represented a class of approximately 150,000 California consumers who had purchased the Avacor® hair regrowth system. In January 2008, after a four-week combined bench-and-jury trial. Mr. Bursor obtained a $37 million verdict for the class, which the Court later increased to $40 million.

Mr. Bursor was appointed class counsel and was elected chair of the Official Creditors' Committee in In re Nutraquest Inc., a Chapter 11 bankruptcy case before Chief Judge Garrett E. Brown, Jr. (D.N.J.) involving 390 ephedra-related personal injury and/or wrongful death claims, two consumer class actions, four enforcement actions by governmental agencies, and multiple adversary proceedings related to the Chapter 11 case. Working closely with counsel for all parties and with two mediators, Judge Nicholas Politan (Ret.) and Judge Marina Corodemus (Ret.), the committee chaired by Mr. Bursor was able to settle or otherwise resolve every claim and reach a fully consensual Chapter 11 plan of reorganization, which Chief Judge Brown approved in late 2006. This settlement included a $12.8 million recovery to a nationwide class of consumers who alleged they were defrauded in connection with the purchase of Xenadrine® dietary supplement products.

Mr. Bursor was the lead trial lawyer in In re: Pacific Bell Late Fee Litigation. After filing the first class action challenging Pac Bell's late fees in April 2010, winning a contested motion to certify a statewide California class in January 2012, and defeating Pac Bell's motion for summary judgment in February 2013, Mr. Bursor obtained final approval of the $38 million class settlement. The settlement, which Mr. Bursor negotiated the night before opening statements were scheduled to commence, included a $20 million cash payment to provide refunds to California customers who paid late fees on their Pac Bell wireline telephone accounts, and an injunction that reduced other late fee charges by $18.6 million.

L. Timothy Fisher has an active practice in consumer class actions and complex business litigation and has also successfully handled a large number of civil appeals.

Mr. Fisher has been actively involved in numerous cases that resulted in multi-million dollar recoveries for consumers and investors. Mr. Fisher has handled cases involving a wide range of issues including nutritional labeling, health care, telecommunications, corporate governance, unfair business practices and consumer fraud. With his partner Scott A. Bursor, Mr. Fisher has tried five class action jury trials, all of which produced successful results. In Thomas v. Global Vision Products, Mr. Fisher obtained a jury award of $50,024,611 — the largest class action award in California in 2009 and the second-largest jury award of any kind. In 2019, Mr. Fisher served as trial counsel with Mr. Bursor in Perez. v. Rash Curtis & Associates, where the jury returned a verdict for $267 million in statutory damages under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act.

Mr. Fisher was admitted to the State Bar of California in 1997. He is also a member of the bars of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, the United States District Courts for the Northern, Central, Southern and Eastern Districts of California, the Northern District of Illinois, the Eastern District of Michigan, and the Eastern District of Missouri. Mr. Fisher taught appellate advocacy at John F. Kennedy University School of Law in 2003 and 2004. In 2010, he contributed jury instructions, a verdict form and comments to the consumer protection chapter of Justice Elizabeth A. Baron's California Civil Jury Instruction Companion Handbook (West 2010). In January 2014, Chief Judge Claudia Wilken of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California appointed Mr. Fisher to a four-year term as a member of the Court's Standing Committee on Professional Conduct.

Mr. Fisher received his Juris Doctor from Boalt Hall at the University of California at Berkeley in 1997. While in law school, he was an active member of the Moot Court Board and participated in moot court competitions throughout the United States. In 1994, Mr. Fisher received an award for Best Oral Argument in the first-year moot court competition.

In 1992, Mr. Fisher graduated with highest honors from the University of California at Berkeley and received a degree in political science. Prior to graduation, he authored an honors thesis for Professor Bruce Cain entitled "The Role of Minorities on the Los Angeles City Council." He is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Representative Cases

Thomas v. Global Vision Products, Inc. (Alameda County Superior Court). Mr. Fisher litigated claims against Global Vision Products, Inc. and other individuals in connection with the sale and marketing of a purported hair loss remedy known as Avacor. The case lasted more than seven years and involved two trials. The first trial resulted in a verdict for plaintiff and the class in the amount of $40,000,000. The second trial resulted in a jury verdict of $50,024,611, which led to a $30 million settlement for the class.

In re Cellphone Termination Fee Cases - Handset Locking Actions (Alameda County Superior Court). Mr. Fisher actively worked on five coordinated cases challenging the secret locking of cell phone handsets by major wireless carriers to prevent consumers from activating them on competitive carriers' systems. Settlements have been approved in all five cases on terms that require the cell phone carriers to disclose their handset locks to consumers and to provide unlocking codes nationwide on reasonable terms and conditions. The settlements fundamentally changed the landscape for cell phone consumers regarding the locking and unlocking of cell phone handsets.

In re Cellphone Termination Fee Cases - Early Termination Fee Cases (Alameda County Superior Court and Federal Communications Commission). In separate cases that are a part of the same coordinated litigation as the Handset Locking Actions, Mr. Fisher actively worked on claims challenging the validity under California law of early termination fees imposed by national cell phone carriers. In one of those cases, against Verizon Wireless, a nationwide settlement was reached after three weeks of trial in the amount of $21 million. In a second case, which was tried to verdict, the Court held after trial that the $73 million of flat early termination fees that Sprint had collected from California consumers over an eight-year period were void and unenforceable.

DECLARATION OF CAMERON R. AZARI, ESQ. REGARDING IMPLEMENTATION AND ADEQUACY OF NOTICE PLAN

I, Cameron R. Azari, Esq., hereby declare and state as follows:

1. My name is Cameron R. Azari, Esq. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein, and I believe them to be true and correct.

2. I am a nationally recognized expert in the field of legal notice and have served as an expert in hundreds of federal and state cases involving class action notice plans.

3. I am a Senior Vice President of Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. (“Epiq”) and the Managing Director of Epiq Legal Noticing (aka Hilsoft Notifications), a business unit of Epiq that specializes in designing, developing, analyzing, and implementing large-scale, un-biased, legal notification plans.

4. Epiq is an industry leader in class action administration, having implemented more than a thousand successful class action notice and settlement administration matters. Epiq Legal Noticing has handled some of the most complex and significant notice programs in recent history, examples of which are discussed below. With experience in more than 700 cases, including more than 75 multidistrict litigation settlements, Epiq Legal Noticing has prepared notices that have appeared in 53 languages and been distributed in almost every country, territory, and dependency in the world. Courts have recognized and approved numerous notice plans developed by Epiq Legal Noticing, and those decisions have invariably withstood appellate review.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

5. I have served as a notice expert and have been recognized and appointed by courts to design and provide notice in many significant cases, including:

a) In re Juul Labs, Inc. Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation, 19-md-02913 (N.D. Cal.), involved two settlements totaling $300 million for JUUL Labs, Inc. and Altria, which alleged consumers were misled about JUUL products' addictiveness and safety, causing them to pay more, and that JUUL products were unlawfully marketed to minors. Two companion notice programs were implemented with more than 10.7 million email notices and nearly 500,000 postcard notices sent to potential class members and comprehensive media efforts (over 936 million impressions delivered). Each notice program reached approximately 80% of the class nationwide.

b) In Re: Zoom Video Communications, Inc. Privacy Litigation, 3:20-cv-02155 (N.D. Cal.), involved an extensive notice plan for an $85 million privacy settlement involving Zoom, the most popular videoconferencing platform. Notice was sent to more than 158 million class members by email or mail, and millions of reminder notices were sent to stimulate claim filings. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 91% of the class. A supplemental media campaign provided notice via regional newspaper notice, nationally distributed digital and social media notice (delivering more than 280 million impressions), sponsored search, an informational release, and a settlement website.

c) In re Takata Airbag Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 2599, 1:15-md-02599 (S.D. Fla.), involved $1.91 billion in settlements with BMW, Mazda, Subaru, Toyota, Honda, Nissan, Ford, and Volkswagen regarding Takata airbags. mobile digital notices, and behaviorally targeted digital media. Combined, the notice programs reached more than 95% of adults aged 18+ in the U.S. who owned or leased a subject vehicle, with a frequency of 4.0 times each.

e) In re: Disposable Contact Lens Antitrust Litigation, 3:15-md-02626 (M.D. Fla.), involved several notice programs to notify retail purchasers of disposable contact lenses for four separate settlements totaling $88 million. For each notice program, more than 1.98 million email or postcard notices were sent to potential class members and a comprehensive media plan was implemented, with a well-read nationwide consumer publication, internet digital notices (delivering more than 312.9 million – 461.4 million impressions per campaign), sponsored search listings, and a case website.

The media notice reached at least 85% of the class. In addition, more than 3.5 million email notices and/or postcard notices were sent to identified class members. NOTICE PLAN SUMMARY

17. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23 directs that notice must be “the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort” and that “the notice may be by one or more of the following: United States mail, electronic means, or other appropriate means.”¹ The Notice Plan as implemented satisfied these requirements.

18. The Notice Plan as designed and implemented reached the greatest practicable number of Settlement Class Members. The Notice Plan individual notice efforts reached approximately 93.1% of the identified Settlement Class Members. The reach was further enhanced by a Settlement Website. In my experience, the Notice Plan was consistent with other court-approved notice plans, was the best notice practicable under the circumstances of this case, and satisfied the requirements of due process, including its “desire to actually inform” requirement.²

CAFA NOTICE

19. On October 17, 2024, Epiq sent 57 CAFA Notice Packages (“CAFA Notice”). The CAFA Notice was mailed via United States Postal Service (“USPS”) Priority Mail to 53 officials (the Attorneys General of 47 states, the District of Columbia, and the United States Territories).

² Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950) (“But when notice is a person’s due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it. The reasonableness and hence the constitutional validity of any chosen method may be defended on the ground that it is in itself reasonably certain to inform those affected . . .”).

Per the direction of the Office of the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General, the CAFA Notice was sent to the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General electronically via email. The CAFA Notice was also sent via United Parcel Service (“UPS”) to the Attorney General of the United States. Details regarding the CAFA Notice mailing are provided in the Declaration of Kyle S. Bingham on Implementation of CAFA Notice, dated October 18, 2024, which is included as Attachment 2.

NOTICE PLAN DETAIL

20. On November 6, 2024, the Court approved the Notice Plan and appointed Epiq as the Settlement Administrator in the Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement Agreement, Certifying Settlement Class, Appointing Class Representative, Appointing Class Counsel, and Approving Notice Plan (“Preliminary Approval Order”). In the Preliminary Approval Order, the Court approved and certified, for settlement purposes, the following “Settlement Class”:

[A]ll individuals who purchased tickets and paid a processing fee to gain entrance to Defendant’s Place of Entertainment from Defendant’s Website from August 29, 2022, and through the date of Preliminary Approval.

Excluded from the Settlement Class are (1) any Judge or Magistrate presiding over this Action and members of their families; (2) the Defendant, Defendant’s subsidiaries, parent companies, successors, predecessors, and any entity in which the Defendant or its parents have a controlling interest and their current or former officers, directors, agents, attorneys, and employees; (3) persons who submit a timely and valid request for exclusion from the class; and (4) the legal representatives, successors or assigns of any such excluded persons.

21. After the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order was entered, Epiq implemented the Notice Plan. This declaration details the notice activities undertaken to date and explains how and why the Notice Plan was comprehensive and well-suited to reach the Settlement Class Members. This declaration also discusses the administration activity to date.

NOTICE PLAN

Individual Notice

22. On October 31, 2024, Epiq received one data file with 117,758 records containing last known email addresses, among other data, for identified Settlement Class Members (“Class List”). Epiq deduplicated, rolled-up, and loaded the unique, identified Settlement Class Member records into its database for the Settlement. These efforts resulted in 113,968 unique, identified Settlement Class Member records (of these records, 5,590 did not have a valid email address and could not be sent Notice).

Individual Notice –Email

23. Commencing on December 2, 2024, Epiq sent 108,378 Email Notices to identified Settlement Class Members for whom a valid email address was available. The following industry standard best practices were followed. The Email Notice was created using an embedded html text format. This format provided easy-to-read text without graphics, tables, images, and other elements to avoid the increased likelihood that the message could be blocked by Internet Service Providers (ISPs) and/or SPAM filters for this type of email communication. Each Email Notice was also transmitted with a unique message identifier. The Email Notice included an embedded link to the Settlement Website. By clicking the link, recipients were able to access the Long Form Notice and other information about the Settlement. The Email Notice is included as Attachment 3.

24. If the receiving email server could not deliver the message, a “bounce code” was returned along with the unique message identifier. For any Email Notice for which a bounce code was received, indicating that the message was undeliverable for reasons such as an inactive or disabled account, the recipient’s mailbox was full, technical autoreplies, etc., at least two additional attempts were made to deliver the Notice by email.

Notice Results

25. As of February 19, 2025, an Email Notice was delivered to 106,143 of the 113,968 unique, identified Settlement Class Members. This means the individual notice efforts reached approximately 93.1% of the identified Settlement Class Members.

Settlement Website

26. On November 27, 2024, Epiq established a dedicated website for the Settlement with an easy to remember domain name (www.OneWorldTicketFeeSettlement.com) (“Settlement Website”). Relevant documents, including the Long Form Notice, Claim Form, Settlement Agreement, Preliminary Approval Order, Motion for Attorneys’ Fees, Costs, Expenses, and Service Award, and other important court documents are posted on the Settlement Website. Settlement Class Members are able to file an online Claim Form on the Settlement Website. Settlement Class Members were also able to submit an online request for exclusion prior to the Exclusion Deadline. In addition, the Settlement Website includes relevant dates, answers to frequently asked questions (“FAQs”), instructions for how Settlement Class Members were able to request exclusion from or object to the Settlement prior to the deadlines, contact information for the Settlement Administrator, and how to obtain other case-related information. The Settlement Website address was prominently displayed in all notice documents.

27. As of February 19, 2025, there have been 19,626 unique visitor sessions to the Settlement Website, and 38,118 web pages have been presented.

Toll-Free Telephone Number and Contact Information

28. On November 27, 2024, Epiq established a toll-free telephone number (1-888-884-6585) for the Settlement. Callers are able to hear an introductory message and also have the option to learn more about the Settlement in the form of recorded answers to FAQs, and to request that a Long Form Notice and Claim Form (“Claim Package”) be mailed to them. This automated telephone system is available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. The toll-free telephone number was prominently displayed in all notice documents. As of February 19, 2025, there have been 81 calls to the toll-free telephone number representing 194 minutes of use.

29. A Claim Package was mailed to all Settlement Class Members who requested one via the toll-free telephone number or other means. As of February 19, 2025, Epiq has mailed four Claim Packages as a result of such requests. The Long Form Notice is included as Attachment 4 and the Claim Form is included as Attachment 5.

30. A postal mailing address and email address were established and continue to be available, allowing Settlement Class Members the opportunity to request additional information or ask questions.

Requests for Exclusion and Objections

31. The deadline to request exclusion from the Settlement or to object to the Settlement was January 10, 2025. As of February 19, 2025, Epiq has received two requests for exclusion. As of February 19, 2025, Epiq is aware of no objections to the Settlement. The Exclusion Report is included as Attachment 6.

Claim Submissions and Distribution Options

32. The Notices provided a detailed summary of the relevant information about the Settlement, including the Settlement Website address and how Settlement Class Members are able to file a Claim Form online or by mail. With any method of filing a Claim Form, Settlement Class Members are given the option of receiving a digital payment or a traditional paper check.

33. The deadline for Settlement Class Members to file a Claim Form is April 21, 2025. As of February 19, 2025, Epiq has received 9,957 Claim Forms (9,729 online and 228 paper). Since the April 21, 2025, Claims Deadline has not yet passed, these numbers are preliminary. With two months until the Claims Deadline, I anticipate additional Claim Forms will be filed. As standard practice, Epiq is in the process of conducting a complete review and audit of all Claim Forms received. There is a likelihood that after detailed review, the total number of Claim Forms received will change due to duplicate and denied Claim Forms.

Claim Stimulation Reminder Notice

34. Commencing on March 22, 2025, and again commencing on April 14, 2025, Epiq is scheduled to send a Reminder Notice to all identified Settlement Class Members who have not yet filed a Claim Form or requested exclusion from the Settlement and who have a valid email address where the initial Email Notice was not previously returned as undeliverable.

CONCLUSION

35. In class action notice planning, execution, and analysis, we are guided by due process considerations under the United States Constitution, by federal and local rules and statutes, and further by case law pertaining to notice. This framework directs that the notice plan be designed to reach the greatest practicable number of potential class members and that the notice or notice plan itself not limit knowledge of the availability of benefits—nor the ability to exercise other options—to class members in any way. All of these requirements were met in this case.

36. The Notice Plan included individual direct notice by email to identified Settlement Class Members with a valid email address. The Notice Plan individual notice efforts reached approximately 93.1% of the identified Settlement Class Members. The reach was further enhanced by a Settlement Website. In 2010, the Federal Judicial Center (“FJC”) issued a Judges’ Class Action Notice and Claims Process Checklist and Plain Language Guide, which is relied upon for federal cases. This Guide states that, “the lynchpin in an objective determination of the adequacy of a proposed notice effort is whether all the notice efforts together will reach a high percentage of the class. It is reasonable to reach between 70–95%.”³ Here, we have developed and implemented a Notice Plan that readily achieved a reach at the high end of that standard.

37. The Notice Plan followed the guidance for how to satisfy due process obligations that a notice expert gleans from the United States Supreme Court’s seminal decisions, which are: a) to endeavor to actually inform the Settlement Class, and b) to demonstrate that notice is reasonably calculated to do so:

- a) “[W]hen notice is a person’s due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it.” Mullane v. Central Hanover Trust, 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950); and

³ FED. JUDICIAL CTR, JUDGES’ CLASS ACTION NOTICE AND CLAIMS PROCESS CHECKLIST AND PLAIN LANGUAGE GUIDE 3 (2010), available at <https://www.fjc.gov/content/judges-class-action-notice-and-claims-process-checklist-and-plain-language-guide-0>.

- b) “[N]otice must be reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156 (1974) (citing Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314).

38. The Notice Plan provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances, conformed to all aspects of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 regarding notice, comported with the guidance for effective notice articulated in the Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth and applicable FJC materials, and satisfied the requirements of due process, including its “desire to actually inform” requirement.

39. The Notice Plan schedule afforded enough time to provide full and proper notice to Settlement Class Members before the Objection Deadline and Exclusion Deadline.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on February 19, 2025.

These were the best practicable means of informing class members of their rights and of the settlement's terms.

Judge Carl J. Barbier, In re Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010 (Medical Benefits Settlement) (Jan. 11, 2013) MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.):

Through August 9, 2012, 366,242 individual notices had been sent to potential [Medical Benefits] Settlement Class Members by postal mail and 56,136 individual notices had been e-mailed. Only 10,700 mailings—or 3.3%—were known to be undeliverable. (Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8, 9.) Notice was also provided through an extensive schedule of local newspaper, radio, television and Internet placements, well-read consumer magazines, a national daily business newspaper, highly-trafficked websites, and Sunday local newspapers (via newspaper supplements). Notice was also provided in non-measured trade, business and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The combined measurable paid print, television, radio, and Internet effort reached an estimated 95% of adults aged 18+ in the Gulf Coast region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States aged 18+ an average of 4 times each. (Id. ¶¶ 8, 10.) All notice documents were designed to be clear, substantive, and informative. (Id. ¶ 5.)

The Court received no objections to the scope or content of the [Medical Benefits] Notice Program. (Azari Supp. Decl. ¶ 12.) The Court finds that the Notice and Notice Plan as implemented satisfied the best notice practicable standard of Rule 23(c) and, in accordance with Rule 23(e)(1), provided notice in a reasonable manner to Class Members who would be bound by the Settlement, including individual notice to all Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort. Likewise, the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of Due Process. The Court also finds the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of CAFA.

Judge Carl J. Barbier, In re Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010 (Economic and Property Damages Settlement) (Dec. 21, 2012) MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice and Class Notice Plan satisfied and continue to satisfy the applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(b) and 23(e), the Class Action Fairness Act (28 U.S.C. § 1711 et seq.), and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution (U.S. Const., amend. V), constituting the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances of this litigation. The notice program surpassed the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA. Based on the factual elements of the Notice Program as detailed below, the Notice Program surpassed all of the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA.

The Notice Program, as duly implemented, surpasses other notice programs ... executed with court approval. The Notice Program included notification to known or potential Class Members via postal mail and e-mail; an extensive schedule of local newspaper, radio, television and Internet placements, well-read consumer magazines, a national daily business newspaper, and Sunday local newspapers. Notice placements also appeared in non-measured trade, business, and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The Notice Program met the objective of reaching the greatest possible number of class members and providing them with every reasonable opportunity to understand their legal rights. See Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8, 15, 68. The Notice Program was substantially completed on July 15, 2012, allowing class members adequate time to make decisions before the opt-out and objections deadlines.

The media notice effort alone reached an estimated 95% of adults in the Gulf region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States an average of 4 times each. These figures do not include notice efforts that cannot be measured, such as advertisements in trade publications and sponsored search engine listings. The Notice Program fairly and adequately covered and notified the class without excluding any demographic group or geographic area, and it exceeded the reach percentage achieved in most other court-approved notice programs.

Judge Alonzo Harris, Opelousas General Hospital Authority, A Public Trust, D/B/A Opelousas General Health System and ArkLamiss Surgery Center, L.L.C. v. FairPay Solutions, Inc. (Aug. 17, 2012) 12-C-1599 (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notice given to Class Members and all other interested parties pursuant to this Court's order of April 18, 2012, was reasonably calculated to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Class as Defined for settlement purposes only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Members rights to be represented by private counsel, at their own costs, and Class Members rights to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford persons or entities within the Class Definition an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Class. Such notice complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the Due Process Clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Class as Defined.

Judge James Lawrence King, Sachar v. Iberiabank Corporation (Apr. 26, 2012) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla):

The Court finds that the Notice previously approved was fully and properly effectuated and was sufficient to satisfy the requirements of due process because it described "the substantive claims ... [and] contained information reasonably necessary to [allow Settlement Class Members to] make a decision to remain a class member and be bound by the final judgment."... The Notice, among other things, defined the Settlement Class, described the release as well as the amount and method and manner of proposed distribution of the Settlement proceeds, and informed Settlement Class Members of their rights to opt-out or object, the procedures for doing so, and the time and place of the Final Approval Hearing. The Notice also informed Settlement Class Members that a class judgment would bind them unless they opted out, and told them where they could obtain more information, such as access to a full copy of the Agreement. Further, the Notice described in summary form the fact that Class Counsel would be seeking attorneys' fees of up to 30 percent of the Settlement. Settlement Class Members were provided with the best practicable notice "reasonably calculated, under [the] circumstances, to apprise them of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314. The content of the Notice fully complied with the requirements of Rule 23.

Judge Bobby Peters, Vereen v. Lowe's Home Centers (Apr. 13, 2012) SU10-cv-2267B (Ga. Super. Ct.):

The Court finds that the Notice and the Notice Plan was fulfilled, in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Amendment, and this Court's Preliminary Approval Order and that this Notice and Notice Plan constituted the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances of this action, constituted due and sufficient Notice of the proposed Settlement to all persons entitled to Extensive notice was provided to the class, including point of sale notification, publication notice and notice by first-class mail for certain potential Class Members.

The affidavit of the notice expert conclusively supports this Court's finding that the notice program was adequate, appropriate, and comported with Georgia Code Ann. § 9-11-23(b)(2), the Due Process Clause of the Constitution, and the guidance for effective notice articulate in the FJC's Manual for Complex Litigation, 4th.

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were in full compliance with the Court's January 11, 2011 Order, the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), and due process. The notice was adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. In addition, adequate notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to participate in the final fairness hearing were provided to the Settlement Class.

Judge Robert M. Dow, Jr., Schulte v. Fifth Third Bank (July 29, 2011) 1:09-cv-06655 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court has reviewed the content of all of the various notices, as well as the manner in which Notice was disseminated, and concludes that the Notice given to the Class fully complied with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, as it was the best notice practicable, satisfied all constitutional due process concerns, and provided the Court with jurisdiction over the absent Class Members.

Judge Ellis J. Daigle, Williams v. Hammerman & Gainer Inc. (June 30, 2011) 11-C-3187-B (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notices given to Settlement Class members and all other interested parties throughout this proceeding with respect to the certification of the Settlement Class, the proposed settlement, and all related procedures and hearings—including, without limitation, the notice to putative Settlement Class members and others... were reasonably calculated under all the circumstances and have been sufficient, as to form, content, and manner of dissemination, to apprise interested parties and members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Settlement Class, the Settlement Agreement and its contents, Settlement Class members' right to be represented by private counsel, at their own cost, and Settlement Class members' right to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford Settlement Class members an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class. Such notices complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the due process clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedures, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Settlement Class.

Judge Stefan R. Underhill, Mathena v. Webster Bank, N.A. (Mar. 24, 2011) 3:10-cv-01448 (D. Conn.) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process.

Judicial Quotes

Judge Ted Stewart, Miller v. Basic Research, LLC (Sept. 2, 2010) 2:07-cv-00871 (D. Utah):

Plaintiffs state that they have hired a firm specializing in designing and implementing large scale, unbiased, legal notification plans. Plaintiffs represent to the Court that such notice will include: 1) individual notice by electronic mail and/or first-class mail sent to all reasonably identifiable Class members; 2) nationwide paid media notice through a combination of print publications, including newspapers, consumer magazines, newspaper supplements and the Internet; 3) a neutral, Court-approved, informational press release; 4) a neutral, Court-approved Internet website; and 5) a toll-free telephone number. Similar mixed media plans have been approved by other district courts post class certification. The Court finds this plan is sufficient to meet the notice requirement.

Judge Sara Loi, Pavlov v. Continental Casualty Co. (Oct. 7, 2009) 5:07-cv-02580 (N.D. Ohio):

[T]he elaborate notice program contained in the Settlement Agreement provides for notice through a variety of means, including direct mail to each class member, notice to the United States Attorney General and each State, a toll free number, and a website designed to provide information about the settlement and instructions on submitting claims. With a 99.9% effective rate, the Court finds that the notice program constituted the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances,” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B), and clearly satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge James Robertson, In re Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Data Theft Litigation (Sept. 23, 2009) MDL No. 1796 (D.D.C.):

The Notice Plan, as implemented, satisfied the requirements of due process and was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Plan was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the action, the terms of the Settlement, and their right to appear, object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement. Further, the notice was reasonable and constituted due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice.

Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA

DECLARATION OF KYLE S. BINGHAM ON IMPLEMENTATION OF CAFA NOTICE

I, KYLE S. BINGHAM, hereby declare and state as follows:

1. My name is KYLE S. BINGHAM. I am over the age of 25 and I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein, and I believe them to be true and correct.

2. I am the Senior Director of Legal Noticing for Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. (“Epiq”), a firm that specializes in designing, developing, analyzing and implementing large-scale, un-biased, legal notification plans. I have overseen and handled Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”) notice mailings for more than 500 class action settlements.

3. Epiq is a firm with more than 25 years of experience in claims processing and settlement administration. Epiq’s class action case administration services include coordination of all notice requirements, design of direct-mail notices, establishment of fulfillment services, receipt and processing of opt-outs, coordination with the United States Postal Service (“USPS”), claims database management, claim adjudication, funds management and distribution services.

4. The facts in this Declaration are based on what I personally know, as well as information provided to me in the ordinary course of my business by my colleagues at Epiq.

CAFA NOTICE IMPLEMENTATION

5. At the direction of counsel for Defendant Legends OWO, LLC, 57 federal and state officials (the Attorney General of the United States and the Attorneys General of each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the United States Territories) were identified to receive CAFA notice.

6. Epiq maintains a list of these federal and state officials with contact information for the purpose of providing CAFA notice. Prior to mailing, the names and addresses selected from Epiq's list were verified, then run through the Coding Accuracy Support System ("CASS") maintained by the United States Postal Service ("USPS").¹

The Notice was mailed via USPS Priority Mail to 53 officials (the Attorneys General of 47 states, the District of Columbia, and the United States Territories). As per the direction of the Office of the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General, the Notice was sent to the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General electronically via email.  6. Per 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b)(6) – Final Judgment or Notice of Dismissal: To date, the Court has not issued a final order, judgment or dismissal in the above-referenced action.
 7. Per 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b)(7) – Estimate of Class Members: At this time, the defendant does not know and cannot feasibly determine the names of the class members residing in each state, and therefore cannot feasibly estimate the proportionate share of the claims of such members to the entire settlement pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1715(b)(7)(A) and (B).

The Settlement class includes all individuals in the United States who purchased tickets and paid a processing fee to gain entrance to Defendant's Place of Entertainment from Defendant's Website from August 29, 2022, and through August 1, 2024.

Given the popularity of the location as a tourist destination, it is estimated that class members are disbursed throughout the United States.

8. 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b)(8) – Judicial Opinions Related to the Settlement: To date, the Court has not issued a final order or judgment in the above-referenced action.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA

(United States District Court for the Southern District of New York)

Our Records Indicate You Purchased Electronic Tickets to One World Observatory between August 29, 2022 and November 6, 2024 and Paid a Fee In Connection With Such Purchase, and May Be Entitled to a Payment From a Class Action Settlement.

A court authorized this notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

This notice is to inform you that a settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit claiming that Legends OWO, LLC (“Defendant”), failed to properly disclose a fee for electronic tickets to the One World Observatory prior to those tickets being selected for purchase, in alleged violation of New York Arts and Cultural Affairs Law (“ACAL”) § 25.07(4). Defendant denies that it violated any law but has agreed to the settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the case.

Am I A Class Member? Our records indicate you purchased electronic tickets to One World Observatory between August 29, 2022, and November 6, 2024, and paid a fee in connection with such purchase.

What Does The Settlement Provide? A Settlement Fund of $970,000 has been established to pay the Settlement Class, together with notice and administration expenses, approved attorneys’ fees and costs, and a service award to the Class Representative.^[1] Additionally, as part of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant acknowledges that it has changed the purchase flow for tickets on its website to display the “Taxes & Fees” that was the subject of this litigation when the ticket is first selected for purchase and which the parties agree is in compliance with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4).

How Do I Get A Payment? To receive a pro rata share of the Settlement Fund, which will be based on the total amount of fees you paid, you must submit a timely and complete Claim Form no later than April 21, 2025. You can file a claim by clicking here. Your payment will be made via PayPal, Venmo, Zelle, or check, at your election. Claim Forms must be submitted online by 11:59 p.m. EST on April 21, 2025, or postmarked and mailed by April 21, 2025.

What Are My Other Options? You may exclude yourself from the Settlement Class by sending a letter to the Settlement Administrator no later than January 10, 2025. If you exclude yourself, you cannot receive a settlement payment, but you keep any rights you may have to sue the Defendant over the legal issues in the lawsuit. You and/or your lawyer have the right to appear before the Court and/or object to the proposed settlement. Your written objection must be filed no later than January 10, 2025. Specific instructions about how to object to, or exclude yourself from, the Settlement are available at www.OneWorldTicketFeeSettlement.com. If you file a claim or do nothing, and the Court approves the Settlement Agreement, you will be bound by all of the Court's orders and judgments. In addition, your claims relating to the alleged collection by Defendant of fees in connection with electronic ticket sales to its One World Observatory from August 29, 2022, through and including November 6, 2024, will be released.

Who Represents Me? The Court has appointed lawyers Philip L. Fraietta and Stefan Bogdanovich of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. to represent the class. These attorneys are called Class Counsel. You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer in this case, you may hire one at your expense.

When Will The Court Consider The Proposed Settlement? The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing at 1:00 p.m. on March 7, 2025, in Courtroom 1506 at the Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, NY 10007. At that hearing, the Court will hear any objections concerning the fairness of the settlement; determine the fairness of the settlement; decide whether to approve Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and costs; and decide whether to award Class Representative Daniel Puller $5,000 from the Settlement Fund for his service in helping to bring and settle this case. Defendant has agreed that Class Counsel may be paid reasonable attorneys' fees from the Settlement Fund in an amount to be determined by the Court. Class Counsel will seek no more than one-third of the Settlement Fund, but the Court may award less than this amount.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK
Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA

IF YOU PURCHASED ELECTRONIC TICKETS TO ONE WORLD OBSERVATORY BETWEEN AUGUST 29, 2022 AND NOVEMBER 6, 2024 AND PAID A FEE IN CONNECTION WITH SUCH PURCHASE, YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO A PAYMENT FROM A CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT.

A court authorized this notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- A settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit claiming that Legends OWO, LLC (“Defendant”), failed to properly disclose a fee for electronic tickets to its One World Observatory prior to those tickets being selected for purchase, in alleged violation of New York Arts and Cultural Affairs Law (“ACAL”) § 25.07(4). Defendant denies that it violated any law, but has agreed to the settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the case.
- You are included in the settlement if you purchased electronic tickets to One World Observatory between August 29, 2022 and November 6, 2024 and paid a fee in connection with such purchase. Persons included in the settlement will be eligible to receive a pro rata portion of the Settlement Fund, which will be based on the total amount of fees they paid.
- Read this carefully. Your legal rights are affected whether you act, or don’t act.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT
SUBMIT A CLAIM FORM BY APRIL 21, 2025	This is the only way to receive a payment.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF BY JANUARY 10, 2025	You will receive no benefits, but you will retain any rights you currently have to sue the Defendant about the claims in this case.
OBJECT BY JANUARY 10, 2025	Write to the Court explaining why you don’t like the settlement.
GO TO THE HEARING ON MARCH 7, 2025	Ask to speak in Court about your opinion of the settlement.
DO NOTHING	You won’t get a share of the settlement benefits and will give up your rights to sue the Defendant about the claims in the case.

These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—are explained in this Notice.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why was this Notice issued?

A Court authorized this Notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to give final approval to the settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the settlement, and your legal rights.

The case is called Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA. The person who sued is called the Plaintiff. The Defendant is Legends OWO, LLC.

2. What is a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called class representatives (in this case, Daniel Puller) sue on behalf of a group or a “class” of people who have similar claims. In a class action, the court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Settlement Class.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

This lawsuit claims that Defendant failed to properly disclose a fee for electronic tickets to its One World Observatory prior to those tickets being selected for purchase, in alleged violation of ACAL § 25.07(4). Defendant denies that it violated any law, but has agreed to the settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the case.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

The Court has not decided whether the Plaintiff or the Defendant should win this case. Instead, both sides agreed to a settlement. That way, they avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with ongoing litigation, and Settlement Class Members will get compensation sooner rather than, if at all, after the completion of a trial.

WHO'S INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am in the Settlement Class?

The Court decided that everyone who fits the following description is a member of the Settlement Class:

All individuals in the United States who purchased electronic tickets and paid a processing fee to gain entrance to Defendant's Place of Entertainment from Defendant's website from August 29, 2022, and November 6, 2024.

"Place of Entertainment" means One World Observatory.

"Defendant's Website" means <https://www.oneworldobservatory.com/>.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

6. What does the settlement provide?

Monetary Relief. A Settlement Fund will be created totaling $975,000. Payments to Settlement Class Members, and the cost to administer the settlement, the cost to inform people about the settlement, attorneys' fees (inclusive of litigation costs), and an award to the Class Representative will also come out of this fund (see Question 12).

Prospective Relief. Defendant acknowledges that it has changed the purchase flow for tickets on its website to display the processing fee that was the subject of this litigation when the ticket is first selected for purchase and which the parties agree is in compliance with New York Arts & Cultural Affairs Law § 25.07(4).

A detailed description of the settlement benefits can be found in the Settlement Agreement, a copy of which is accessible on the Settlement Website at OneWorldTicketFeeSettlement.com.

7. How much will my payment be?

To receive a pro rata share of the Settlement Fund, which will be based on the total amount of fees you paid, you must submit a timely and complete Claim Form no later than April 21, 2025. You can file a claim by visiting the Settlement Website at OneWorldTicketFeeSettlement.com. Your payment will be by PayPal, Venmo, Zelle, or check, at your election. Claim Forms must be submitted online by 11:59 p.m. EST on April 21, 2025 or postmarked and mailed by April 21, 2025. You can contact Class Counsel at (646) 837-7150 to inquire as to the number of claims and/or requests for exclusion that have been received to date.

8. When will I get my payment?

The hearing to consider the fairness of the settlement is scheduled for March 7, 2025 at 1 p.m. If the Court approves the settlement, eligible Settlement Class Members whose claims were approved by the Settlement Administrator will receive their payment no later than 90 days after entry of Final Judgment. The payment will be made in the form of a check, unless you elect to receive payment by PayPal, Zelle, or Venmo, and all checks will expire and become void 180 days after they are issued.

HOW TO GET BENEFITS

9. How do I get a payment?

If you are a Settlement Class Member and you want to get a payment, you must complete and submit a Claim Form by April 21, 2025. Claim Forms can be found and submitted by visiting the Settlement Website at OneWorldTicketFeeSettlement.com. or by printing and mailing a paper Claim Form, copies of which are available at the Settlement Website.

We also encourage you to submit your claim online. Not only is it easier and more secure, but it is completely free and takes only minutes!

REMAINING IN THE SETTLEMENT

10. What am I giving up if I stay in the Settlement Class?

If the settlement becomes Final, you will give up your right to sue the Defendant and other Released Parties for the claims being resolved by this settlement. The specific claims you are giving up against the Defendant are described in the Settlement Agreement. You will be “releasing” the Defendant and certain of its affiliates, employees and representatives as described in Section 1.33 of the Settlement Agreement. Unless you exclude yourself (see Question 13), you are “releasing” the claims, regardless of whether you claim your electronic payment or not. The Settlement Agreement is available through the “court documents” link on the website.

The Settlement Agreement describes the released claims with specific descriptions, so read it carefully. If you have any questions, you can talk to the lawyers listed in Question 11 for free or you can, of course, talk to your own lawyer if you have questions about what this means.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

11. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

The Court has appointed Philip L. Fraietta and Stefan Bogdanovich of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. to be the attorneys representing the Settlement Class. They are called “Class Counsel.” They believe, after conducting an extensive investigation, that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer in this case, you may hire one at your expense.

12. How will the lawyers be paid?

The Defendant has agreed that Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees and costs may be paid out of the Settlement Fund in an amount to be determined by the Court. The fee petition will seek no more than one-third of the Settlement Fund, inclusive of reimbursement of their costs and expenses; the Court may award less than this amount. Under the Settlement Agreement, any amount awarded to Class Counsel will be paid out of the Settlement Fund.

Subject to approval by the Court, Defendant has agreed that the Class Representative may be paid a service award of $5,000 from the Settlement Fund for his services in helping to bring and resolve this case.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

13. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must submit a request for exclusion by 11:59 p.m. EST on January 10, 2025. Requests for exclusion may be submitted either on the Settlement Website at OneWorldTicketFeeSettlement.com or by mailing or otherwise deliver a letter (or request for exclusion) stating that you want to be excluded from the Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA settlement. Your letter or request for exclusion must also include your name, your address, a statement that you purchased electronic tickets to One World Observatory from Defendant’s Website from August 29, 2022 through and including November 6, 2024; and paid a processing fee in connection with such purchase, your signature, the name and number of this case, and a statement that you wish to be excluded. If you choose to submit a request for exclusion by mail, you must mail or deliver your exclusion request, postmarked no later than January 10, 2025, to the following address:

QUESTIONS? CALL (888) 884-6585 TOLL FREE, OR

One World Observatory Ticket Fee Settlement
P.O. Box 2880
Portland, OR 97208-2880

14. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue the Defendant for the claims being resolved by this settlement.

15. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive any payment from the Settlement Fund.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

16. How do I object to the settlement?

If you are a member of the Settlement Class, you can object to the settlement if you don't like any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must file with the Court a letter or brief stating that you object to the settlement in Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA, and identify all your reasons for your objections (including citations and supporting evidence) and attach any materials you rely on for your objections. Your letter or brief must also include your name, your address, the basis upon which you claim to be a member of the Settlement Class, the name and contact information of any and all attorneys representing, advising, or in any way assisting you in connection with your objection, and your signature. If you, or an attorney assisting you with your objection, have ever objected to any class action settlement where you or the objecting attorney has asked for or received payment in exchange for dismissal of the objection (or any related appeal) without modification to the settlement, you must include a statement in your objection identifying each such case by full case caption. You must also mail or deliver a copy of your letter or brief to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel listed below.

Class Counsel will file with the Court and post on this website its request for attorneys' fees by December 27, 2025.

If you want to appear and speak at the Final Approval Hearing to object to the settlement, with or without a lawyer (explained below in answer to Question Number 20), you must say so in your letter or brief. File the objection with the Court (or mail the objection to the Court) and mail a copy of the objection to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel, at the addresses below, postmarked no later than January 10, 2025.

Court	Class Counsel	Defendant's Counsel
The Honorable Ronnie Abrams Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse 40 Foley Square Courtroom 1506 New York, NY 10007	Philip L. Fraietta Bursor & Fisher P.A. 1330 Avenue of the Americas 32 nd Floor New York, NY 10019	Matthew M. Gurvitz Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP 2029 Century Park East Los Angeles, CA 90067

17. What's the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the Settlement?

Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself from the Settlement Class is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing at 1:00 p.m. on March 7, 2025, in Courtroom 1506 at the Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, NY 10007. The purpose of the hearing will be for the Court to determine whether to approve the settlement as fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class; to consider the Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and expenses; and to consider the request for an incentive award to the Class Representative. At that hearing, the Court will be available to hear any objections and arguments concerning the fairness of the settlement.

The hearing may be postponed to a different date or time without notice, so it is a good idea to check for updates by visiting the Settlement Website at OneWorldTicketFeeSettlement.com or calling (888) 884-6585. If, however, you timely objected to the settlement and advised the Court that you intend to appear and speak at the Final Approval Hearing, you will receive notice of any change in the date of the Final Approval Hearing.

19. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. But, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection or comment, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you filed and mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay another lawyer to attend, but it's not required.

20. May I speak at the hearing?

Yes. You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must include in your letter or brief objecting to the settlement a statement saying that it is your "Notice of Intent to Appear in Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA." It must include your name, address, telephone number, and signature as well as the name and address of your lawyer, if one is appearing for you. Your objection and notice of intent to appear must be filed with the Court and postmarked no later than January 10, 2025, and be sent to the addresses listed in Question 16.

GETTING MORE INFORMATION

21. Where do I get more information?

This Notice summarizes the settlement. More details are in the Settlement Agreement. You can get a copy of the Settlement Agreement at OneWorldTicketFeeSettlement.com. You may also write with questions to One World Observatory Ticket Fee Settlement, P.O. Box 2880, Portland, OR 97208-2880. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

DANIEL PULLER, on behalf of himself and all
others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

LEGENDS OWO, LLC,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA

[PROPOSED] FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

WHEREAS, a class action is pending before the Court entitled Puller v. Legends OWO, LLC, No. 1:24-cv-00209-RA; and

WHEREAS, Plaintiff Daniel Puller, and Defendant Legends OWO, LLC (“Defendant”) have entered into a Class Action Settlement Agreement, which, together with the exhibits attached thereto, sets forth the terms and conditions for a proposed settlement and dismissal of the Action with prejudice as to Defendant upon the terms and conditions set forth therein (the “Settlement Agreement”) (ECF No. 40-1); and

WHEREAS, on November 6, 2024, the Court granted Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, conditionally certifying a Class pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3) of “all individuals in the United States who purchased tickets and paid a processing fee to gain entrance to Defendant’s Place of Entertainment from Defendant’s Website from August 29, 2022, and through the date of Preliminary Approval”; and

WHEREAS, nothing has occurred since the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order which causes this Court to alter the findings it made in the Preliminary Approval Order in support of the approval of the settlement entered into between the Parties; and

WHEREAS, the Court has considered the Parties' Class Action Settlement Agreement (ECF No. 40-1), as well as Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement Agreement (ECF No. 48), Plaintiff's Motion for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, Expenses, And Service Award (ECF No. 44), together with all exhibits thereto, the arguments and authorities presented by the Parties and their counsel at the Final Approval Hearing held on March 7, 2025, and the record in the Action, and good cause appearing;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, DECREED, AND ADJUDGED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Terms and phrases in this Final Judgment shall have the same meaning as ascribed to them in the Parties' Class Action Settlement Agreement.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Action and over all Parties to the Action, including all Settlement Class Members.

3. The Notice provided to the Settlement Class pursuant to the Settlement Agreement (ECF No. 40-1) and order granting Preliminary Approval (ECF No. 43) – including (i) direct notice to the Settlement Class via email, based on the comprehensive Settlement Class List provided by Defendant, and (ii) the creation of the Settlement Website – fully complied with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 and due process, and was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, their right to object to or to exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement, and their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing.

4. Two individuals – listed in Attachment 6 to the February 19, 2025 Declaration of Cameron R. Azari Regarding Implementation of Notice and Claims Administration (ECF No. 51) – have submitted a timely, valid request for exclusion and are therefore excluded from the Settlement Class.

5. The Court finds that Defendant properly and timely notified the appropriate government officials of the Settlement Agreement, pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 (“CAFA”), 28 U.S.C. § 1715. The Court has reviewed the substance of Defendant’s notice and finds that it complied with all applicable requirements of CAFA. Further, more than ninety (90) days have elapsed since Defendant provided notice pursuant to CAFA and the Final Approval Hearing.

6. This Court now gives final approval to the Settlement Agreement, and finds that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. The settlement consideration provided under the Settlement Agreement constitutes fair value given in exchange for the release of the Released Claims against the Released Parties. The Court finds that the consideration to be paid to members of the Settlement Class is reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members, considering the total value of their claims compared to (i) the disputed factual and legal circumstances of the Action, (ii) affirmative defenses asserted in the Action, and (iii) the potential risks and likelihood of success of pursuing litigation on the merits. The complex legal and factual posture of this case, the parties’ exchange of relevant information, and the fact that the Settlement is the result of arms-length negotiations between the Parties support this finding. The Court finds that these facts, in addition to the Court’s observations throughout the litigation, demonstrate that there was no collusion present in the reaching of the Settlement Agreement, implicit or otherwise.

7. The Court has specifically considered the factors relevant to class action settlement approval, including:

- (1) the complexity, expense and likely duration of the litigation;
- (2) the reaction of the class to the settlement;
- (3) the stage of the proceedings and the amount of discovery completed;
- (4) the risks of establishing liability;
- (5) the risks of establishing damages;
- (6) the risks of maintaining the class action through trial; (7) the ability of defendants to withstand a greater judgment; (8) the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund in light of the best possible recovery; and (9) the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund to a possible recovery in light of all the attendant risks of litigation.

City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448 (2d Cir. 1974); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e).

8. The Court finds that the Class Representative and Class Counsel adequately represented the Settlement Class for the purposes of litigating this matter and entering into and implementing the Settlement Agreement.

9. Accordingly, the Settlement is hereby finally approved in all respects.

10. The Parties are hereby directed to implement the Settlement Agreement according to its terms and provisions. The Settlement Agreement is hereby incorporated into this Final Judgment in full and shall have the full force of an Order of this Court.

11. This Court hereby dismisses the Action on the merits and with prejudice.

12. Upon the Effective Date of this Final Judgment, Plaintiff and each and every Settlement Class Member who did not opt out of the Settlement Class (whether or not such members submit claims), including such individuals' respective present, past, and future heirs, executors, estates, administrators, representatives, beneficiaries, predecessors, successors, assigns, parent companies, subsidiaries, associates, affiliates, employers, employees, agents, consultants, independent contractors, insurers, directors, managing directors, officers, partners, principals, members, attorneys, accountants, financial and other advisors, underwriters, shareholders, lenders, auditors, investment advisors, legal representatives, successors in interest, assigns, and companies, firms, trusts, and corporations (the "Releasing Parties") shall be deemed to have released Defendant, as well as any and all of its current, former, and future parents, predecessors, successors, affiliates, subsidiaries, divisions, or related corporate entities, and all of their respective current, future, and former employees, officers, directors, shareholders, members, managers, representatives, assignees, accountants, sales and/or customer service agents, joint venturers, fiduciaries, beneficiaries, insurers, reinsurers, principals, trustees, administrators, executors, attorneys, and customers (collectively “Released Parties”), from any and all actual, potential, filed, known or unknown, fixed or contingent, claimed or unclaimed, suspected or unsuspected, claims, demands, liabilities, rights, causes of action, suits, liens, judgments, costs, contracts or agreements, extra contractual claims, damages, punitive, exemplary or multiplied damages, expenses, costs, attorneys’ fees, obligations, and all other legal responsibilities, whether in law or in equity, accrued or un-accrued, direct, individual or representative, of every nature and description whatsoever, whether based on the ACAL or other state, federal, local, statutory or common law or any other law, rule, ordinance, claim, or regulation, whether past, present, or future, against the Released Parties, or any of them, based upon, arising out of, or otherwise relating to any facts, transactions, events, matters, occurrences, acts, disclosures, statements, representations, omissions or failures to act regarding the alleged collection and retention by Defendant of fees in connection with electronic ticket sales from August 29, 2022, through the date of Preliminary Approval, including but not limited to all claims that were brought or could have been brought in the Action relating to any and all Releasing Parties.

13. Upon the Effective Date of this Final Judgment, the above release of claims and the Settlement Agreement will be binding on, and will have res judicata and preclusive effect on, all pending and future lawsuits or other proceedings maintained by or on behalf of Plaintiff and all other Settlement Class Members and Releasing Parties. All Settlement Class Members are hereby permanently barred and enjoined from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, or participating (as class members or otherwise) in any lawsuit or other action in any jurisdiction based on or arising out of any of the Released Claims.

14. The Court has also considered Plaintiff's Motion For Attorneys' Fees, Costs, Expenses, And Service Award, as well as the supporting memorandum of law and declarations (ECF Nos. 44-47), and adjudges that the payment of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses in the amount of $325,000.00 is reasonable in light of the multi-factor test used to evaluate fee awards in the Second Circuit. See Goldberger v. Integrated Resources, Inc., 209 F.3d 43, 50 (2d Cir. 2000). Such payment shall be made pursuant to and in the manner provided by the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

15. The Court has also considered Plaintiff's Motion, memorandum of law, and supporting declarations for a service award to the Class Representative, Daniel Puller. See ECF Nos. 44-47. The Court adjudges that the payment of an incentive award in the amount of $5,000 to the Class Representative to compensate him for his efforts and commitment on behalf of the Settlement Class, is fair, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances of this case. Such payment shall be made pursuant to and in the manner provided by the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

16. All payments made to Settlement Class Members pursuant to the Settlement Agreement that are not negotiated within one hundred and eighty (180) days of issuance shall be redistributed on a pro rata basis to all Settlement Class Members who claimed their payments. To the extent that a second distribution would be infeasible, any unclaimed funds shall revert to the Legal Aid Society, which the Court approves as an appropriate cy pres recipient. Except as otherwise set forth in this Order, the Parties shall bear their own costs and attorneys' fees.

17. The Parties, without further approval from the Court, are hereby permitted to agree and adopt such amendments, modifications, and expansions of the Settlement Agreement and its implementing documents (including all exhibits to the Settlement Agreement), including extensions of time, so long as they are consistent in all material respects with this Final Judgment and do not limit the rights of Settlement Class Members.

18. If this Final Judgment is reversed or vacated on appeal, or the Settlement Agreement is terminated pursuant to its terms, all orders entered in connection herewith shall be null and void and the Parties shall be restored to their respective positions as if the settlement had never been entered into, and any documents in connection with the settlement of this matter shall not be used or referred for any purpose in this Action or any other proceeding.

19. This Order, the Settlement Agreement, and any documents in connection with the settlement of this matter shall not be construed as an admission of any fault, liability, or wrongdoing on the part of Defendant or the Released Parties, which Defendant and the Released Parties expressly denied. This Order, the Settlement Agreement, and any documents in connection with the settlement of this matter shall not be offered against Defendant or the Released Parties in any other action or proceeding of any kind. Defendant and any Released Parties shall be permitted to utilize this Order and the Settlement Agreement for purposes of enforcing this Order and the Settlement Agreement and to support any claims and defenses Defendant and the Released Parties may have.

20. Without affecting the finality of this Final Judgment for purposes of appeal, until the Effective Date the Court shall retain jurisdiction over all matters relating to administration, consummation, enforcement, and interpretation of the Settlement Agreement.

21. This Court hereby directs entry of this Final Judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 58 based upon the Court's finding that there is no just reason for delay of enforcement or appeal of this Final Judgment, and hereby dismisses this Action with prejudice, with each party to bear their own costs, except as provided in this Order or in the Settlement Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this _____ day of _____, 2025.

The Honorable Ronnie Abrams
United States District Judge
